In 1990 he lived in Bonner's Ferry Idaho and was married to Tracy and had 2 children Tessa 13 and Ty 9. He was a farmer.

Jackson - George

From 20th Reunion

In 1990 he lived in McCall Idaho and was married to Kathy. He was an entrepreneur with his trucking company.

Highlights: I am a private pilot and enjoy flying, also model trains.

Since I was born and raised in Caldwell, I met many of you in elementary school. Mrs. Matthews was my sweet first grade teacher at Lincoln School. One day in her class, two boys (I'm nearly certain it was Dick Baranco and Brent Andre) and I were throwing spit wads and Mrs. Matthews scolded us. Being a shy, typically well behaved child, getting in trouble devastated me and after going home I went to my playroom and cried and cried.

In third grade my desk sat in the front and a hilarious boy sat directly behind me. It was his mission in life to make me laugh during class and he succeeded at it many times. When I did laugh, Mrs. Shuey would promptly waltz by and whack me on the head with a ruler (I didn't cry!). It was grand entertainment for the comedian behind me.

At Washington School I had Mrs. Thomas for a teacher and there I met Myra Hansen who soon became my life-long best friend and the sister I never had. Years later she was maid of honor at my wedding and I was matron of honor at her's. She has seen me through the joys and sorrows of life ever since fifth grade and I couldn't ask for a better friend. We celebrate our birthdays together and see each other as often as possible.

In addition to the good friends I made, some of my fondest memories at CHS were participating in Mrs. Waggoner's musicals (what a talent she was!), being on drill team, and going to games, track meets, etc.

During my junior year I went to hear a speaker who had worked with Dave Wilkerson (who wrote The Cross and the Switchblade) and there I met Alan Hauser, a student at Boise State College. His dad was an interim pastor in Caldwell and Alan invited me to his church. Before long we were inseparable and a year later we were married. We were crazy to get married so young, but we were in love and there was a lot of uncertainty with the war going on. Alan left for boot camp in April of 1970 and to medic training shortly after, but fortunately he did not have to go to Vietnam.

When we decided to start a family I quit working to be home with our children. It was a joy caring for them, watching them grow and going to their school activities and sporting events. Motherhood is a gift and I loved it all! When they were older I began substitute teaching and enjoyed doing that for several years. Working with children is something I love, and I have worked in Awana (a Christian club for kids) since 1988.

Volunteering at Republican Headquarters also kept me busy, and I worked on all but one of the campaigns for Congressman (and later Senator) Steve Symms. Our children were in the Symms Apple Chorus, a kid's choir that another friend and I organized, and we went on bus tours and worked at a variety of events. Our two oldest kids and I also did a TV commercial with Symms. During those years I met Ronald Reagan (when he was still Governor of California), Gov. and Mrs. John Connally (who were in the car with President Kennedy when he was shot), radio host Paul Harvey and others.

When our two oldest kids were grown they moved out of state, but our youngest daughter stayed in this area. In 2012 both our son and oldest daughter moved back to Idaho (Boise). By 2014 we had two grandchildren, and both of our daughters were expecting (one with twins). We decided it was time for us to move to Boise, to be closer to our kids and their families. It was hard leaving my hometown and our house of forty-three years, but it's been worth it to be near our precious family! I adore being a grandma and we have our grandchildren over often. One of my favorite quotes is, "A grandchild fills a space in your heart you never knew was empty." We now have six grandchildren as well as a beloved grand-daughter in heaven.

In December 2017, Alan retired from the City of Boise where he had worked as a mechanical inspector for over 23 years, and we enjoy having more time together.

Last September our kids and their spouses surprised us with a lovely 50th wedding anniversary party in the same church building where we were married. We were grateful and overwhelmed by all the time, love, and effort they put into making it such a beautiful celebration.

One of our pastors used to say, "If you got married as teenagers and you are still married, you have only God to thank". He was correct and we truly do give God all of the credit. It is to our Lord that we give thanks for everything- our marriage, our family, our country and His saving, amazing grace. It hasn't been a perfect life, but it has been a wonderful life!

No one will forget 2020

Jensen - Jeffrey

Listings & Sales at Century 21 Golden West Realty. Studied Design Architecture and business at University of Idaho.

From 30th Reunion

I would like to thank the 10, 20, 30, and hopefully the 40th reunion committee for all of their hard work and time spent on this worthy project. I have had nothing but fun at the 2 previous functions and I am sure that the 30th will be a blast too! Am happy to say my wife, Beth and I, just celebrated our 22nd wedding anniversary and that we have 3 lovely teenage daughters that are health and in school. It just amazes me how fast it has all gone by and that whenever I happen upon another classmate, how wonderful it is to know that you have shared the same time slot with that other person. I am saddened when I think of the ones who have passed before us but happy to remember them when they were so young and beautiful. I want to wish all of you attending a warm hello and a safe journey home and I hope I have a chance to visit with each and every one of you.

Deceased 10/15/2012

John B Johansen, 61, of Caldwell, died October 15, 2012 at home of natural causes. A graveside memorial service will be held at 10:39 a.m. Thursday, May 15, 2013 at hillcrest Memorial Gardens, Caldwell, under the direction of Dakan Funeral Chapel, Caldwell.

Johnson - Patti Kiser

From 20th Reunion

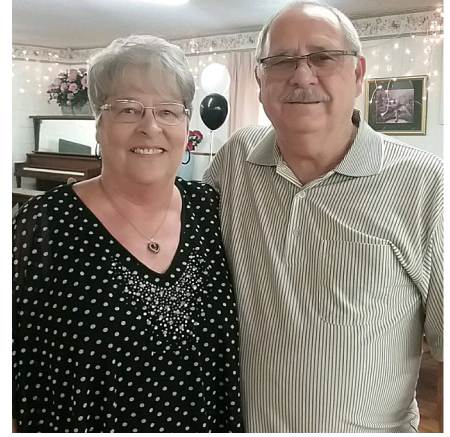

In 1990 she lived in Middleton and was married to Bob and has 2 children Rob 18 and Renee 16. She was a substitute school teacher .

When she grew up: No different that I am right now. . .
Happy, contented and enjoying life to the fullest.

Highlights: There are no highlights that would make for interesting reading, but my life is what many others would like to have. I've been married forever to a fabulous man. I have 2 children that are fine young adults. My son spent his time developing his athletic abilities and it paid off with numerous state and local honors. Now he uses this ability in college. My daughter is a very talented artist and one day many people will see this talent.

So much for an exciting life. . . but I wouldn't trade mine for anything in the world.

Johnson - Penny Sower

Deceased 11/9/2017

Penny Ann Sower- "I've Gone to Join My Soulmate" -Penny was born on May 29, 1951 to the most wonderful parents in the world, Robert and Ruth Johnson with her 1-minute older twin sister Patty leading the way. Besides the "twins", there were two brothers Ralph William and Richard Arnold Johnson, both deceased. They all shared in the love, fun, and closeness like no other family.

She married her soulmate and complete love of her life, Peyton "Pat" Sower on November 28, 1986 and together they had a marriage of 27 years that was a fairy tale. The only other "soulmate" to Penny was her twin sister Patty, who survives her to this day and misses her greatly. No greater love exists than that of a twin sister. It is only fate that when Pat & Penny's symbiotic relationship began, it was in November of 1986. In November 2013, it suffered its first tragedy when Pat passed away. Their relationship has now and forever come full circle with Penny joining her soulmate in November of 2017. It will now be never ending.

Penny was truly grateful for all the support of her many friends that included Bill & Diane Allen, Jim & Kari Miller, Rod Hoskins, Randy & Cheryl Carpenter along with many others from Victor's. Penny was a diehard Carolina Panther's fan and forced her nephew to stand in line for an hour to simply get Jordan Gross's autograph. Penny worked for the Simplot Company from 1979 - 2012 retiring after 33 years of dedicated service.

Penny is survived by her 1-minute older twin sister Patty & Bob Kiser, mother-in-law Maude Sower, nephew Rob & Shelly Kiser, niece Renee & Jayson Johnson, and her "adopted" brother Curtis Sower. Penny was preceded in death by her husband: Peyton R. "Pat" Sower; her parents Robert and Ruth Johnson; her two brothers Ralph William Johnson and Richard Arnold Johnson.

Jones - Mary Haffey

From 20th Reunion

In 1990 she had 2 children Joey 11 and Amanda 6. She lived in Lake Oswego Oregon and was a manager at 1st Interstate bank in Washington Square Br.

When she grew up: she wanted to be independently wealthy and she could not decide what I want out of her career.

Highlights: Marriage then divorce. 20 years of banking. 2 great kids.

I remember: Chuck Krause (editor note-unrehabilitated) because he was forever strangling me in class. Jerry Bates- I still owe him for embarrassing me so badly in math class.

Jorgensen - Mary Jane

Celebrating the Life of Medical Marijuana Advocate
James Lee Jim “Madfingers” Klahr

James Lee Jim “Madfingers” Klahr, died November 9th, 2014 at 1 a. m. Sunday in Portland, after battling liver failure. He had been awaiting a liver donor at Oregon Health Science University. Jim was born November 5th, 1951 in the small town of Beeville, Texas and grew up in Caldwell, Idaho. Jim leaves behind a wife, Marilyn, 2 sons, Dallas and Alfred and many friends. Jim, celebrated his 63rd birthday just days before his death & after seeing one of his Dreams come true.

Oregon had become the 3rd state in the Nation to Legalize Marijuana. He was best known for his advocacy on the marijuana front, but he was also an accomplished musician, small-business owner and politician. Above all, Jim was a better friend & teacher than another one could ever ask to walk onto their path of life and into your hearts. He had a love for good music and an even bigger love to teach others. Abstaining from the use of marijuana while being one of the strongest advocates in Oregon for the long over due changes. Running for political office multiple times in Curry county, Oregon. Jim Klahr was a contender for the state representative seat on the November general election ballot — he was on the ballot two years ago — and fought for decades in California and Oregon to change legislation to legalize first, medical marijuana programs and later, recreational use. One of his strongest beliefs and I too agree and will carry on his work to quote his Lovely wife, “Jim never believed a political seat should be won because someone ran unopposed”, Marilyn Klahr.

Jim helped to start Oregon Green Free, a social and political organization aimed at educating medical marijuana patients. He also sat on The Advisory Committee to Medical Marijuana Program for The State of Oregon. Let’s not forget about his influence on other great organizations, MAMA’s, Oregon NORML, Voter Power, Southern Oregon NORML, and THCF, just to name a few.

Marijuana eased the pain of Jim’s liver problems, but he hadn’t used it for more than 12 years, as doing so would have disqualified him for a liver transplant. The list required the recipients to be drug free. Jim qualified to be on the federal list for a transplant in 2002.

During our little chats which sometimes lead to long discussions over the years of our friendship, Jim had shared his past with me of his walk down a dark reckless road of alcohol use and a wild life. Lots of memories! Cannabis had been the ‘gateway drug’ to keep Jimmy off alcohol. Until he had to go onto ‘the list’. A list that his name remained on until his death.

The man that could roar like a lion, using his soft voice as gentle and so comforting and true as a lamb. The impacts he made in Oregon and many other places....the endurance that he seemed to always sustain were incredible. The life lessons that he taught so many of us will be passed on to other generations, including my own Grandchildren. Take pause, make plan, be patient, if your fall, replan, NEVER LOSE HOPE, WIN!! Oregon had a Huge win this year~NO DOUBT! But we also lost 2 Freedom Fighters & I challenge all of you to live as they both did daily #JimStrong.

Kitchin - Kathy Lattimar

Koprowski - Carl

Stained glass artist/musician (guitar player)/rock and gem enthusiast.

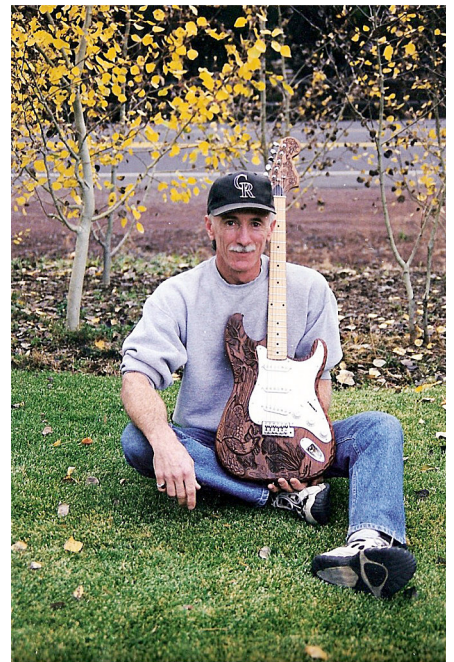

From 20th Reunion

In 1990 Carl lived in Meridian and was a forestry Technician/Firefighter.

When he grew up: retired early in the mountains of Idaho with a hot spring on my property.

Highlights: playing in a band, going on tour with another as a light man in the Northwest. Getting involved with crafts and scrimshaw. Fighting forest fires and flying in helicopters a great deal.

I remember: Joe Vermaas, because we were both comics at heart and he made me laugh a lot.

Bidding Caldwell goodbye I attended Oregon State University where I met my wife JoAnne. Marrying in 1975 we moved to Portland where she worked as a Dental Hygienist while I attended Oregon Health Sciences University. At that time, I re-dedicated my life to Jesus. Oh, the difference it has made. Our daughter Abby was born there. (Dave T was at OSU and OHSU at the same time.) Graduating from there I went to The Family Medicine Residency in Boise for 3 years and had many rousing adventures moonlighting in ER's around the state. Our daughter Ginny was born there.

We moved to Walla Walla to work in a Migrant Health clinic for the National Health Service Corp. I delivered lots of babies and learned a bit about Hispanic culture. Our daughter Emily was born there. In 1985 we moved to Tri-cities, WA where I joined several of my friends from med school to form a Christian Family Medicine group. Greg Clopton called on us there as a pharmaceutical representative. Our son Victor was born there.

After 21 years at that practice my wife and I formed Apple Family Medicine in Richland. She was the business manager and I told the jokes. After 9 years with the difficulties of dealing with the business aspect of medical practice, I decided to join Kadlec Medical Center, first working in their clinic and then serving as medical director of Urgent Care before retiring in 2017.

Retirement has re-energized me with various interests. I switched from cornet to Tuba (I know this was a shock to some) and I play in the college band here and we also have a tuba group called the Tubadours which plays at events around town and in Leavenworth. I am volunteering at the free Clinic here in town which turns out to be a very rewarding experience. At church we have a senior's group where I play keyboard and sing with a little band that we have put together. We are not great, but they appreciate the spirit. I also lead a small group study.

Lambright - Sheri Culver

From 20th Reunion

In 1990 she lived in Boise and was married to Van. She had 2 children Rebecca 17 and Aaron 11. She taught 2nd grade at McMillan Elementary.

When she grew up: she wanted to be Mel Gibson's leading lady

Highlights: I nearly became part of the inventory at BSU after working there from 1975-1988. Decided not to stick around for the gold watch after all. Graduated in 1989 with a degree in Elementary Ed. And will be teaching 2nd grade this fall. 2 children and a husband with a passion for soccer keep me entertained.

I remember: Paul Lodge the summer he grew out of his freckles and up about 6 inches. . . he got more than just the basketball coach's attention that fall!

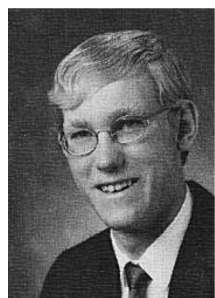

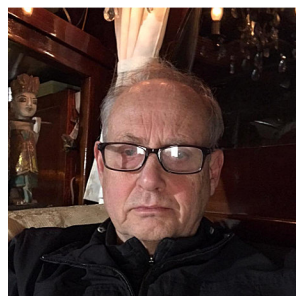

Lanfear - Mark

From 20th Reunion

In 1990 he lived in Wenatchee Washington and was married to Carol Radlo. He had a daughter Emily Rose 22 months. He was a retired Chef/restaurant owner/ full time father

When he grew up: a famous artist and filmmaker. But for now I plan to open a country inn for my next venture.

Highlights: In reverse chronological order: the most profound highlight is being the father to my daughter, Emily Rose; my marriage to Carol Radlo; the highs and lows of self employment; but overall the joy of starting and building (over 9 years) a regionally acclaimed restaurant and getting to do the work I love associated with it. Over the past 15 years I've enjoyed hiking, mountaineering and rock climbing in Washington and Alaska. Apart from cooking and entertaining, which, as a hobby got me involved in the restaurant business, I've enjoyed woodworking, sea kayaking and painting.

Lavoy - Newell

From 20th Reunion

In 1990 he lived in Bonita California and had 2 children Paul 9 and Hailey 6. He was president of Western Lumber company.

Highlights: After graduating from Caldwell, I attended Stanford Univ. in Palo Alto CA and had a great time. I spent 6 years there getting both a Bachelor of Arts degree and a Masters in Business Administration. During my undergraduate years, I spent a year abroad with a Stanford program in Germany and Austria, and had a lot of opportunity to travel throughout Europe. I have 2 children who are special to me. In 1977 I joined Boise Cascade Corp. and have been involved in the building material distribution business ever since. After many moves up and down the West Coast (9 to be exact) we are now back in San Diego for the 2nd time, where I am president of Western Lumber a San Diego based company with operations throughout San Diego County. We plan to stay for a while as the weather is great. I like my job and the wife and kids are happy. See you at the reunion.

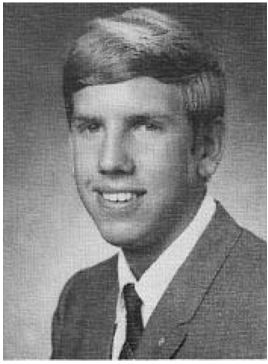

Lewis - Barbara Ravenscroft

From 20th Reunion

In 1990 she lived in Bliss Idaho and was married to Bryan. She had a daughter Kara 3 and was a housewife/florist.

My senior year seems so far back in time it's challenging to relate to it, especially when I watch my step-grandson's high school graduation ceremony. His world, like mine, did include girls, studies, sports, music, college choices and the uncertainties of the future. I had the Vietnam war in the back of my mind (my older brother was there at the time) as I pondered my future. I was curious about what was beyond Idaho, just not eager to experience it with a rifle in hand, praying for survival.

As it turned out a year later, the draft encouraged me to spend my army time in Germany, which gave me quite an education in terrorist activities (think Munich Olympics, Red Army bombings, etc.), military and foreign cultures. I also fell in love with the Bavarian Alps, having been accepted to the Ski Patrol duty with the military recreational unit in Garmisch-Partenkirchen for about a year. I met my first wife there and we returned to the alps a few years later so I could delve into a 4 year wood-sculpture apprenticeship.

Traveling, skiing and being part of a traditional dance group are part of the fond memories of that time. We next spent a year in the Cotswold region of England, where I learned the English way of woodworking and remodeling, before returning to the US, ending up in Oregon.

I've been here ever since, in the Portland area, raising a wonderful son, Dustin, expanding my artistic endeavors and learning so much about myself. For over 13 years we lived on a 60 acre farm, helping run a spiritual retreat center and organic farm.

Dovetailing art projects with my remodeling business, and becoming experienced as an Attunement practitioner (similar to Reiki or the Canadian medical training in Healing Touch) kept my plate overflowing.

Eventually life took a sharp course change, as I accepted a new job managing properties and projects around Oregon, divorced and finally found a long lost friend who has become my art partner and wife (since 2010). Deborah Alysoun fills my life with abundant joy, artistic encouragement and steadfast love.

From 20th Reunion

In 1990 she lived in Morgan Utah, was married to Michael and had 9 children ages 2-16.

When she grew up she wanted to be the boss.

Highlights: College 2 years, married, worked in advertising design, had 5 children, divorced, college 1 year, remarried, inherited 3 more children, had 1 more child, went back to college again. Maybe some day I'll get a degree!

I remember: Nancy Sanders because she was so "wild". Teresa Roberts because she didn't have to iron her hair to make it straight. Mary Cannon because she was so patient with the boy from Special Ed. who used to sing "Mellow Yellow" to her. Jerry Bates—Because!

From 30th Reunion

I am currently retired - invested well - living life to the fullest. From 1979-1995, I taught high-risk teenagers in the Caldwell School District. From 1995-1999, lived in Portland, Oregon - worked for an investment company and property management. Traveled the Oregon coast extensively. Moved back to Idaho to be with my family, especially my three granddaughters. They are what make my life. My three daughters live in this area also - all doing very well in their careers. My sister (Lori) and I are currently in the middle of our own business - Wolf Creek Casuals, so watch for our label.
