ANNOUNCEMENTS

Honoring and praying for Roberto M

Consistory has received with regret the resignation letter of our beloved Music Director, Roberto M. He has sold his house and is moving out of the area. We will be honoring, showing him our appreciation and praying for him today.

Today, August 22

Looking for additional volunteers to work on a rotating schedule to do live and recorded video for Sunday worship services. For more information, see Rebecca G or Jason D.

Sunday School

Bring your children & grandchildren from nursery age to 15 years old to Sunday School on the weeks we have church in the sanctuary. Thanks to the Lord and the teachers for their enthusiastic response to our call. To the older children, we'd be happy for you to come be helpers.

All indoor worship Sundays

Old Zion Church 1735 reenactment service

Sunday, September 12, 4 p.m.

Come hear Pastor Farrell as the Reverend John Phillip Boehm, a local German Reformed church planter in the early 1700s. Local church members, including Conrad Weiser, had burnt the Heidelberg Catechism, Luther's hymnal and books and left for the Ephrata Cloister. Boehm condemns this action and exhorts the church to be faithful to the Lord.
