

Another Funny Day

Verse

Just another funny day I, can't believe the things I meant to say they...
Seem to come and go and fall away, within my grasp I reach to no avail
Some things are best unspoken, when I speak I seem to find them broken down

Verse

The key to peace is just a simple turn of, the key that locks away my hopes and dreams
I fight to find the words I really need, to share the love with you and plant the seed
Some things are best unspoken, cause when I speak I seem to find them broken down

Chorus

When I sing I fade away
Into a world I find is here to stay
Nothing matters in this silly world
Where nothing seems to ever bring me down

Verse

The silly thing is that I'm always thinking, about your smile and your annoying habits
Nothing fills me with the likes of your I...
Can't believe I never let me show this
Some things are best unspoken, cause when I speak I find them broken down
