Key:

Tempo: 126 bpm

Am [12x]

Verses Am G F → C

Your picture in my head is just a swollen memory; infected from the trapping of your lies
What now lay before me I hope is just a dream [just a dream]

G F [4x]

Caught between your tear-filled eyes; tears that salt my wounds; only serve to wash the pain away

Break [2x]

Am

Verse [12x]

Lifted up only to be crushed again; ripped apart from the meaning to this life
Something grips me yet there's nothing there to see; I've fallen into nothing but more grey

G F

Caught between your tear-filled eyes; tears that salt my wounds; only serve to wash the pain away

Chorus [4x] Am Cm Fm

Zero is what's signified; in dark corners of my mind
One reflects the one implied, but zero is what's signified
It casts a shadow in my mind

Verse [12x]

All the simple things in life [been taken from me]
All spread out across the landscape of my mind [it's empty]
So much outward change can't fix a broken soul [nowhere left to go]
Or even blur the seasons of one's life [things change too much]

G F [4x]

I wish that it were blood and torn sleeves; I can try to heal the memories
That were taken so soon from my life

Chorus [8x] Am Cm Fm

Zero is what's signified; in the dark corners of my mind
One reflects the one implied, but zero is what's signified
It casts a shadow in my mind

There's a shadow in my mind
There is Zero in my mind
