NABCRMP CORPORATE ADVISORY BOARD (CAB)

A community of forward-thinking professionals that are passionate and committed to diversity, equity, inclusion, and equal opportunity in the workplace.

ABOUT US

Founded in 2019, the National Association of Black Compliance & Risk Management Professionals, Inc. is a member-based 501 (c) (3) non-profit association dedicated to the professional development of African-American compliance and risk management professionals. Members of NABCRMP represent corporations, financial institutions, law firms, accountants, consulting firms, government agencies, trade associations, universities and non-profit organizations.

Our professionals work across a variety of business industries and sectors, including banking and financial services, health and life sciences, employment, telecommunications, consumer products and agriculture, and cybersecurity.

Together, we represent every spectrum of compliance, corporate governance and risk management, ranging from risk officers, advisors, policy and procedure specialists, compliance analysts, compliance managers, chief compliance officers, board of directors, lawyers, accountants, consultants, corporate counsels and general counsels.

WHAT IS THE CORPORATE ADVISORY BOARD (CAB)?

The NABCRMP CAB is the voice of the industry to the NABCRMP leadership.

NABCRMP CAB is comprised of thought-leaders representing world-renowned organizations that will assist the Board of Directors and Executive Team with compiling strategies regarding funding initiatives, capital campaign funding, marketing concerns, advanced technology, endowments and ways to increase membership enrollment and provide constructive feedback to enhance the growth potential of the organization.

As a member of NABCRMP CAB, you will provide direct input into programming, go-to-market strategy and technical direction of NABCRMP. In addition, participation in the CAB is a great opportunity to connect with your industry peers to share knowledge and experience.

WE ARE COMMITTED

We are committed to making your participation in the NABCRMP CAB worthwhile by:

- Assembling key NABCRMP industry executives and leadership to participate actively in CAB meetings.
- Supporting ongoing dialogue and feedback loops (the conversations won't end at the in-person meetings).
- Facilitating learning with other members of the Board.
- Providing a forum to share your ideas and connect with your peers.
- Effectively managing the agenda and meeting minutes for the Board.

Your commitment to participate in CAB will include:

- One-year commitment for membership.
- Attending up to twice-yearly in-person meetings (as permitted).
- Participation in mid-term conference calls (alternating with in-person meetings).
- Providing feedback on NABCRMP initiatives and other related items brought to the Board for advice and guidance.
- Engaging with NABCRMP executive and program leadership to share your insight, expertise and and recommendations.

Your primary point of contact for NABCRMP CAB is Jennifer Newton, Founder/CEO (786-361-8590, jennifer@nabcrmp.org).

WHY JOIN THE NABCRMP CAB?

The benefits of participation include:

- Direct access to NABCRMP senior executives.
- Corporate Membership Benefits
- Advance information on NABCRMP plans (under NDA).
- Engagement with senior leaders from other NABCRMP Industry Partners.
- Connection via NABCRMP with key NABCRMP committee leaders as appropriate.

NABCRMP CAB GOALS

- To attract corporate leadership who share our vision and an interest in corporate investment in our mission and long-term goals.
- To host briefings with our corporate partners on topics critical to diversity, equity and inclusion and providing a nurturing and more inclusive environment for diverse professionals.
- To increase corporate dollars creating and expanding opportunities for diverse students seeking to make risk governance and compliance their chosen profession.

In this period of renewed effort to dismantle the social and structural impediments that have contributed to racial disparities in every aspect of life, the National Association of Black Compliance & Risk Management Professionals, Inc. (NABCRMP) is uniquely positioned to provide a forum for fostering dialogue and innovative outcomes in professional settings while recognizing the leading organizations that truly value diversity and inclusion.

The NABCRMP Corporate Advisory Board furthers the organization's mission to advocate diversity and inclusion as essential to good corporate governance practices. This partnership is a platform designed to foster closer collaboration and dialogue with the leadership of NABCRMP on issues of importance to Black risk officers and compliance professionals. Specifically, our corporate members will have a unique opportunity to discuss developments in their respective industries and share their perspectives on key issues. The board will participate in identifying trends, discussing policy and laying the foundation for future collaboration that will benefit employees, organizations and communities.
