The National Association of Black Compliance & Risk Management Professionals, Inc. (NABCRMP) is the nation's voice for Black compliance & risk management professionals from every business industry and sector.

Founded in 2019, the National Association of Black Compliance & Risk Management Professionals, Inc. is a member-based 501 (c)(3) non-profit association dedicated to exclusively representing the interest of African-American compliance and risk management professionals through advocacy, best-in-class education and high-quality programming and services.

OUR VISION | NABCRMP

Our vision is to create corporate environments where the unique perspectives and contributions of Black compliance and risk management professionals are nurtured, encouraged, and valued, which we believe results in a more inclusive environment that leads to better decision-making, innovation and risk outcomes.

OUR VALUES | NABCRMP

We believe that diversity and inclusion are critical elements of effective risk governance. As such, we believe that supporting, encouraging, and fostering the professional development of Black compliance and risk management professionals in corporate environments encourages good corporate decision-making and governance practices. We also believe that the unique perspectives and insights of Black compliance and risk management professionals are not only valuable in corporate settings, but should be harnessed to support Black entrepreneurs and small businesses to further economic inclusion and community stability.

OUR MISSION | NABCRMP

Our goals are multifaceted. Our intentions are clear. We are committed to:

- developing, encouraging, and strengthening members and their communities by providing access to a network of Black professionals with expert level knowledge and experience in risk management, corporate governance, industry best practices, regulatory compliance, and process improvement;
- providing members with training and professional development opportunities;
- advocating and encouraging policies that view diversity and inclusion as critical elements to risk management and corporate governance;
- supporting members seeking higher levels of accomplishment;
- assisting members with identifying business opportunities; and
- encouraging diverse students to make risk governance and compliance their chosen profession by providing career guidance and resources.

OUR MEMBERS

Representing 10.7% of Compliance officers, Black (Non-Hispanic) is the second most common race or ethnicity in the compliance profession.

Members of NABCRMP represent corporations, financial institutions, law firms, accountants, consulting firms, government agencies, trade associations, universities and non-profit organizations.

Our professionals work across a variety of business industries and sectors, including banking and financial services, health and life sciences, employment, telecommunications, consumer products and agriculture, and cybersecurity. Together, we represent every spectrum of compliance, corporate governance and risk management, ranging from risk officers, advisors, policy and procedure specialists, compliance analysts, compliance managers, chief compliance officers, board of directors, lawyers, accountants, consultants, corporate counsels and general counsels.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION
