Heritage Museum of Northwest Florida presents

History Sandwiched-In

Florida Art: Past, Present and Future

On Friday, June 26 at 12:00 p.m. local museum professional Michelle Jannazo will present Florida Art: Past, Present and Future. The lunchtime lecture will focus on notable, regional visual artists from the mid-19th century through the present.

Guests will have an opportunity to view the Heritage Museum’s exhibit Southern Accent: Images of Northwest Florida featuring local art and newly restored paintings from the Museum’s permanent collection.