3. Sessions and payment places in our recreational gymnastic sessions are subject to availability and can be bookable via our club website. We offer a first come, first serve policy in booking the trial session for any classes at Precision Gym club. Places in our squad programmes are by invitation only. Places will only be confirmed by a member of staff in writing via email. If you are successful in obtaining a place in a class or programme, payment is due in one of the following ways: Recreational classes: Full payment in advance for the term ahead for all classes squad and recreational. The full term dates of training dates is provided for you on your invoice and available to view on your acceptance email / new term re enrolment. Payment for the terms classes should only be made via bank transfer directly to the club bank account. If you have difficulties in making payments for your gymnast's sessions, you must discuss this with a member of the office team in advance of the upcoming due date, to discuss an alternative payment date to be agreed upon before the due payment date. Late payment of fees will be incurred on any payments 3 days or more overdue.

4. Gymnasts can only participate in a session if British Gymnastics membership/insurance has been paid in full. If you have not paid your membership then your gymnast will not be able to participate in the session. This does not include trial sessions. The British Gymnastics membership year runs from 1 September to 31 August each year. Membership will automatically renew on 1 September each year whereupon members will become liable to pay a Membership fee for the new Membership year. We make every effort to ensure that the details on the website or in flyers are correct but we reserve the right to make amendments if necessary at any time You must inform us of any medical condition, Injury or disability, which may be relevant to the child booked on to a gymnastic class or programme. You must also notify us of any change or deterioration of any such medical condition, injury or disability. We will keep this information confidential and handle such issues with discretion. It is our policy to include any such individuals within the scheduled courses wherever possible, but we reserve the right to Updated 01/03/2025 refuse the booking if we are regrettably unable to accommodate the needs of the individual at Precision Gymnastics

5. Cancellations and refunds All cancellations must be made in writing, by letter or email, Verbal cancellations will not be accepted.

There are no refunds available for the following booking types:

- Camps
- Workshops,
- Private bookings
- Recreational classes
- Squad classes

Cancellations for Recreational classes must be received a minimum of one month before the Term begins. On cancellation of a term payment, up to one month or more prior to the first session, a refund will be given less £20 administration fee. No refunds available after that date. Squad members are required to see their full season through, however if a member does decide that retirement from the squad is necessary before completion of the season 1 full terms notice is required including full payment for that term. (usually 12/16 weeks) If it is the case that a member is leaving the squad mid way through the final term or further into that final term as much notice during that final term is required so that the Gymnast does not need to roll into the following term in the new Season. We reserve the right to cancel any session due to any unforeseen circumstances or any safety concerns on the premises which must be addressed before training resumes. In this case an alternative replacement session will be offered and no refund will be available. If you would like to consider a class day/time change you must contact coaches via email to request changing to the alternative class.

5. Damages and loss Damage caused whilst at Precision Gymnastics is chargeable to the offender(s). Updated 01/03/2025 Precision Gymnastics accepts no liability for damage to, or loss of, any property or articles or things whatsoever, placed or left at Precision Gymnastics or any of our Centres by any person or organisation.

6. Data Protection Information given to the Club is held in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 but may also be made available to British Gymnastics and our Insurers.

7. Jewellery, Body Piercing and Adornment British Gymnastics believes that jewellery and adornments worn in body piercing are inappropriate for safe practice in gymnastics and trampolining. Participants - A person participating with body adornments or jewellery MUST inform the coach and also remove the relevant items to reduce the risk of injury to the participant, the coach and others. Exceptions to the above may be applicable in special circumstances. In some circumstances, it may be impossible to remove a ring and/or dermal piercings. Should this be the case; the ring must be sufficiently covered with protective tape; and the piercings covered sufficiently in order to eliminate any risk. Religious and Medical jewellery can be worn but must be covered with tape or a sweat band. Failure to conform will prohibit the individual's participation on the grounds of reasonable safety and may render the individual's insurance invalid should an accident result directly from non-compliance.
