Your Ceremony, Your Way

12 MEANINGFUL WAYS TO MAKE YOUR CEREMONY PERSONAL

Every love story has its own moments, meaning, and path.
Begin with what feels true for you.

1

Start with what matters to you.

Ask each other what you want this moment to mean, feel like, and help you to remember. Let those answers guide you.

2

Arrive in a way that feels like you.

Walk together, enter on your own, or invite someone special to accompany you. There are many meaningful ways to begin.

3

Tell a little of your story.

Share an unexpected beginning, a turning point, or a quiet moment when you knew. Small details can hold deep meaning.

4

Choose words that sound like you.

Tender, joyful, spiritual, playful, or straightforward, choose language that reflects your identities, beliefs, values and love.

5

Make promises for everyday life.

Promise to listen, make room for growth, share the weight, or keep finding moments of laughter.

Meaning connection and the people you love

6 Bring your people into the moment.

Invite someone meaningful to offer a reading, carry the rings, or share a few words. Connection matters more than traditional roles.

7 Honour the family you are creating.

Acknowledge children, families, legacy and chosen family. Invite everyone to participate in a way that feels comfortable.

8 Hold space for those you are missing.

A flower, a keepsake, a few words, or a quiet pause can honor someone whose love remains part of your story.

9 Let music and readings carry meaning.

Choose a song, poem, or passage that recalls a memory, reflects your values, or expresses something you have always felt.

10 Choose ritual with roots in your life.

Blend sand, plant something, warm your rings, or honour a tradition. Let the action express what you are building together.

11 Welcome the love around you.

Invite your guests to offer a shared promise of encouragement and support for the life ahead.

12 Give yourselves a moment to be present.

Pause. Hold hands. Look at each other and the people gathered around you. Let yourself feel this moment.
