"CREATIVITY, COMMUNITY, AND A TOUCH OF CHRISTMAS MAGIC!"

Hello everyone,

It's been a busy and exciting time since September, so here's a little update on what's been happening in the world of clay!

Market News

I'm thrilled to say I now have a regular stall at Stroud's Shamblles Market! From next year, you'll be able to find me there on the first weekend of every month — so pop by, say hello, and see what's new on the table.

Courses and Classes

My current 8-week hand-building course is nearly over, and it's been such a joy. It's been so well received that I'll be starting a new 8-week course on Wednesday evenings, beginning 7th January.

There are only a few spaces left, so if you'd like to join, please get in touch soon — it's a wonderful way to start the new year creatively!

Halloween Fun 🎃

We celebrated Halloween with a fantastic pottery painting evening — a complete sell-out and packed with creativity! There were so many brilliant pieces, but my personal favourite was the wonderfully spooky “My Htenical Romance” goth chicken! 🕷️❤️

Commissions

I've also been busy with lots of special commissions lately — thank you to everyone who's reached out!

If you're thinking of ordering something unique (for yourself or as a gift), please do get in touch soon.

🎁 Christmas commissions need to be confirmed by the end of this week to guarantee completion in time.
