ARRANGEMENT AND DISPLAY OF THE CALENDAR, PLANNER AND ALMANAC PAGES

The planner's calendar pages are arranged by civil-calendar week within the 16 months from late August, 2025 through December, 2026, corresponding to 7 Elul 5785 through 21 Tevet 5787. Each week is spread over two pages. The left page holds dates, holidays, and candle-lighting times while providing space for recording such things as daily tasks, assignments, appointments, and reminders. Its facing page has spaces for recording weekly goals and objectives, Assignments/Notes/Reflections, and things to-do. This page also gives overviews of the previous and subsequent months' civil and Jewish calendars.

All calendar entries employ the same pattern: Civil date, civil month, day of the week, Jewish date, and Jewish month, followed by any religious and/or secular holidays, events, and candle-lighting times associated with the date.

The first date reads, "31 AUG SUN 7 ELUL." This line says August 31 falls on Sunday, corresponding to 7 Elul, and there are no Jewish or civil holidays, or candle-lightings associated with this date. The next line reads '1 SEP MON 8 ELUL LABOR DAY(f)'. September 1 falls on Monday and corresponds to 8 Elul, Labor Day, a federal holiday.

The top of each calendar page displays the civil and Jewish months and dates associated with that page; the bottom left page holds an inspirational quote. At the very end of the weekly-calendar pages are monthly calendars with space for notes and planning.

Almanac information is located immediately below and peppered throughout. An almanac section, at the end, offers Jewish holiday and calendar facts for each month, along with interesting astronomical events for that month, and historical information. This section concludes with a full-year view of the Jewish and civil calendars for 2027 (5788) and a listing of civil and religious holidays for 2028 (5789).

RULES FOR USING JEWISH CALENDARS

- Jewish-calendar days begin at 6 PM and end the next day at 6 PM, local time. Religious days are different, they run from sunset to sunset.
Example: If a birth or death occurred on August 26, 2024, corresponding to 22 Av, at 9:30 AM, then that event is recorded in the Jewish calendar as 22 Av. However, if the event occurred at 9:30 PM on the same day, then the date of the birth or death is 23 Av in the Jewish calendar because it happened at or after 6 PM.
- Jewish holiday and birthday celebrations falling in Adar in common years, occur on the same date in Adar II in leap years.
Example: If a child is born on 19 Adar 5761 (March 14, 2001), then that birthday is celebrated on 19 Adar II in Jewish leap years.
- All events occurring in Adar I or Adar II in leap years, fall on the same date in Adar in common years.
Example: If a birth or death happens on 24 Adar I 5771, then in Jewish common years, the event is observed on 24 Adar. The same applies to Adar II.
- Yahrzeits falling in Adar in common years are commemorated on the same date in Adar I in leap years.
Example: If a death occurs on 6 Adar 5773 (February 16, 2013), then the yahrzeit is observed on 6 Adar I in Jewish leap years.
- The month of Adar in common years has twenty-nine days and the month of Adar I, falling in leap years, has thirty days. If a yahrzeit or birthday occurs on 30 Adar I, then in common years, yahrzeits are observed on 30 Shevat, but birthdays on 1 Nisan.
Example: A death occurring on 30 Adar I 5771 (March 6, 2011) is observed on 30 Shevat 5772 (February 23, 2012), and all other common years, whereas a birth happening on that day is celebrated 1 Nisan 5772 (March 24, 2012), and in all other common years.
- The months of Heshvan and Kislev have variable lengths of either twenty-nine or thirty days. If an event occurs on the thirtieth of either month and in a subsequent year the month has only twenty-nine days, then the event is commemorated on the twenty-ninth of the month.
Example: A death occurs on November 3, 2013, corresponding to 30 Heshvan 5774. Four years later, in 5778, Heshvan has only twenty-nine days. The yahrzeit will be remembered on the twenty-ninth, which is the same as November 18, 2017. This rule equally applies to the month of Kislev.

ACTIONS REQUIRED BY THE TORAH READING PARENTHETICAL NUMBERS

(1) SHABBATOT PRECEDING PASSOVER:

Shabbat Shekalim: Additional Torah Reading Exodus 30:11-16. Read Haftarah II Kings 12:1-17 (Sephardim Read II Kings 12:1-17).

Shabbat Zakhor: Additional Torah Reading Deuteronomy 25:17-19. Read Haftarah: I Samuel 15:2-34 (Sephardim begin the haftarah with Verse 1).

Shabbat Parah: Additional Torah Reading Numbers 19:1-22. Read Haftarah: Ezekiel 36:16-38 (Sephardim read haftarah Ezekiel 36:16-36).

Shabbat Hahodesh: Additional Torah Reading Exodus 12:1-20. Read Haftarah: Ezekiel 45:16-46:18 (Sephardim read Ezekiel 45:18-46:16).

Shabbat Hagadol: No Additional Torah Reading. Read Haftarah: Malachi 3:4-24.

(2) HAFTAROT ON DOUBLE-TORAH PORTIONS:

Aharei/Kedoshim: Read Haftarah Kedoshim

Behar/Behukkotai: Read Haftarah Behukkotai

Hukat/Balak: Read Haftarah Balak

Mattot/Masei: Read Haftarah Masei

Tazria/Metzora: Read Haftarah Metzora

Nitzavim/Vayelekh: Read Haftarah Nitzavim

(3) SHABBAT SHUVAH: Read Haftarah Hosea 14:2-10 and Micah 7:18-20 (Ashkenazim Add: Joel 2:15-27).

(4) SHABBAT ROSH HODESH: Additional Torah Reading Numbers 28:9-15. Read Haftarah Isaiah 66:1-24.

(5) SHABBAT FALLING ON THE DAY BEFORE ROSH HODESH: Read Haftarah I Samuel 20:18-42.

(6) SHABBAT(OT) OF HANUKKAH:

1st Shabbat Read Haftarah Zechariah 2:14-17; 3:1-10; 4:1-7.

2nd Shabbat Read Haftarah I Kings 7:40-50 (Sephardim Read I Kings 7:13-26).

(7) PARASHAT PEKUDEI FOR SEPHARDIM: Read Haftarah I Kings 7:40-50

(8) PARASHAT PINCHAS FALLING AFTER 17 TAMMUZ: Read Haftarah Mattot (Jeremiah 1:1-19; 2:1-3).

(9) SHABBAT PRECEDING ROSH HODESH: No additional Torah or haftarah readings. The New Month is announced and blessed.

(10) MACHZOR HAGADOL: Not a Torah reading, but a ceremony, falling on a Wednesday every twenty-eight years, with a recitation of Birkat Hachamah, a "Blessing for the Sun," as it rises in the east and figuratively re-enacts its procession across the sky at the same time, position, and day of the week it did on the day of its creation. Next occurrence: Sunrise, April 8, 2037.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE PLANNER'S CONTENTS

- The three public fast days known as Bet-Hey-Bet, observed in Iyyar and Heshvan, and Yom Kippur Katan, the fast days occurring the day before every Rosh Hodesh, except for the months of Tishri, Kislev, Nisan, and Elul, are not shown.
- The fast days of 17th of Tammuz and the 9th of Av are cited, but not bein hametzarim, the three weeks between them.
- The three preparatory days before Shavuot, the 3rd, 4th, and 5th of Sivan, are not labeled.
- Selihot is displayed, but not the succeeding Selihot days, which continue until the day before Yom Kippur.
- The state holiday of Kurdish Jewry, Seharane, originally celebrated in Kurdistan on 22 – 24 Nisan, is now generally celebrated in Israel sometime during Hol HaMoed Sukkot or just after, so as not to interfere with Mimouna (listed under Jewish Holidays Falling 14 Nisan – 13 Iyyar 5785, below). The celebration is not included because it has no fixed date and is not recognized as a national-Israeli holiday.

MEANING OF THE PARENTHETICAL SUFFIXES

- The letter (f) means the holiday is a federal holiday.
- The letter (o) indicates the holiday is observed on a day other than its official date.

USING THE TABLE OF CANDLE-LIGHTING TIMES

Holiday and Sabbath candle-lighting times listed on each calendar page are for New York City, Eastern Standard Time (EST). To convert to your location, find your closest city and week number within the required month, using the Table of Candle-Lighting Times, below.

Example: The Sabbath candle-lighting time for New York City on October 24, 2025, the fourth Sabbath of the month, is 4:44 PM. Suppose, of the cities listed in the Table of Candle-Lighting Times, the closest city to you is Chicago, IL. The Table shows a time difference of -7 minutes. meaning candle-lighting time is 7 minutes earlier than New York City's time, or 4:44 PM - :07 = 4:37 PM. Compensate, if daylight saving time is in effect.

Example: Erev Peach candle-lighting time for New York City on April 1, 2026, the first week of the month, is 6:02 PM. Suppose, of the cities listed in the Table of Candle-Lighting Times, the closest city to you is Phoenix, AZ. The Table shows a time difference of +27 minutes, meaning candle-lighting time is 24 minutes later than New York City's time, or 6:02 PM + :27 = 6:29 PM. Compensate, if daylight saving time is in effect.

Facts and Statistics About Jewish Year 5786

Jewish New Year 5786 begins on Tuesday, September 23, 2025, with a postponed molad (lunation time) of 3d 18h 187p (12:10:23 PM).

Jewish New Year 5786 comes 2,112,944 days after 1 Tishri of Jewish year 1 (A.M. 1).

Jewish Year 5786 is a regular common year, a year with 354 days; all months alternate 29 and 30 days. A Jewish year beginning on Tuesday in a regular common year happens just six times in the 21st century, only occurring twice more after this year, September 24, 2052 (A.M. 5813) and September 26, 2079 (A.M. 5840).

The Hebrew abbreviation for Jewish year 5786 is תשפ"ו, pronounced "tash-páhv." Hebrew letters have numeric values, and this abbreviation stands for 786. The 5000 is implicitly understood, just as in writing 1/1/26, the 2000 is implicitly understood.

Jewish Year 5786 is year 10 of the 19-year Metonic Cycle within cycle 304 since creation. Creation cycle 304 is 6,940 days long, from October 3, 2016 through October 3, 2035, the same as 1 Tishri 5777 through 29 Elul 5795.

Annually, we read from three different Torahs during the morning service of Simchat Torah. Additionally, when certain Jewish holidays fall on the Sabbath of Rosh Hodesh, we also read from three Torah scrolls instead of two. They are:

- (1) Shabbat Shekalim Rosh Hodesh (about once every 13 years),
- (2) Shabbat HaHodesh Rosh Hodesh (about once every 3-4 years),
- (3) Shabbat Rosh Hodesh Hanukkah (about once every 3-4 years).

The first Torah for the weekly portion, the second for Rosh Hodesh, and the third for the holiday's maftir portion. We need three Torahs on December 20, 2025, for Shabbat Rosh Hodesh Hanukkah, and then not needing three Torahs again on any Sabbath until March 17, 2029, for Shabbat HaHodesh Rosh Hodesh.

Jewish Holidays Falling 8 Elul 5785 – 8 Tishri 5786

September 1 - 30, 2025

SELIHOT – Not a Jewish holiday, but the recitation of a collection of prayers of “forgiveness” held in synagogues the last or next to the last Saturday evening into early Sunday morning before Rosh Hashanah.

ROSH HODESH – “Head of the Month,” referring to the start of a new month. Jewish months can have only 29 or 30 days. When a month has thirty days, the thirtieth of the old month and the first of the new month are celebrated as one Rosh Hodesh. In a 29-day month, only the first of the new month is called Rosh Hodesh. The start of Rosh Hodesh is announced in synagogues the prior Sabbath, except for Rosh Hodesh Tishri, the beginning of Rosh Hashanah.

ROSH HASHANAH – A biblical holiday whose Hebrew words mean “Head of the Year.” Yet, it is the seventh month of the year. The Jewish calendar has two important religious new years. The first follows the administrative year, beginning in the spring, the “first month of months,” Nisan. The second follows ancient Israel’s agricultural year beginning with the reaping of the harvest, the first month of the new year, Tishri. This should not be surprising. For example, January is the first month of months and September is the first month of a new school year.

FAST OF GEDALIAH – A dawn-to-nightfall fast day lamenting the assassination of Gedaliah ben Achikam, beloved governor of the Kingdom of Judah by Yishmael ben Netanyah, commissioned for this event by the King of Ammon while wrestling for control of Israel from the Babylonians in the wake of the destruction of the First Temple in 586 BCE. After his death, conquering King Nebuchadnezzar exiled most of Judea’s Jews to Babylonia. (Described in the last chapter II Kings).

Some Jewish Calendar Facts for Elul

- Elul is the final month in the Jewish Calendar; the 12th month in common years and the 13th in leap years.
- Elul is often considered a month for introspection, because Jews recite Selihot (forgiveness) prayers this month.
- The shofar is blown everyday this month in traditional synagogues.
- A greeting for Elul is “K’tiva chatimah tovah,” “May you be inscribed and sealed [in the Book of Life] for good.
- On 8 Elul in 1790, President Washington wrote a letter to the Jewish community of Newport, RI, expressing hope of a government permitting all religions to live side by side in harmony and religious freedom.

- On 9 Elul in 1654, the first Jew, Jacob Barsimson, arrived in New Amsterdam (now New York). Twenty-three more Jews, escapees from the Brazilian Inquisition, arrived in New Amsterdam from Recife, Brazil four months later.
- On 28 Elul in 1849, the first shul in South Africa established.

Jewish Holidays Falling 9 Tishri – 9 Heshvan 5786

October 1 – 31, 2025

EREV YOM KIPPUR – The Hebrew word “erev” means evening, referring to the fact that Jewish days run from evening to evening. A special prayer, Kol Nidre, is said during this service, at the beginning of Yom Kippur, asking God to forgive the entire Jewish community in advance for any sins committed in the upcoming year.

YOM KIPPUR – A 25-hour day of fasting and prayer in which Jews ask God for the expiation of their sins.

SUKKOT – A seven-day biblical holiday: “All the citizens of Israel shall live in sukkot (temporary houses) for seven days so that future generations shall know I made the Israelites live in sukkot when I brought them out of Egypt” (Leviticus 23:42-43). The holiday is also known as the “Feast of Ingathering,” evoking memory of the temporary houses (sukkot) the Israelites erected in the fields to be near the crops being harvested (see Exodus 34:22). In remembrance, some people build a sukkah (singular of sukkot) to eat meals therein, at least some of the time, during the holiday.

HOL HAMOED SUKKOT – This Hebrew term refers to the ordinary days of Sukkot, days in which large convocations are not held and people go on with their ordinary lives.

HOSHANA RABBA – The holiday of Sukkot is seven days long. The final day has a special name meaning “The Great Hoshanah.” The seven Hoshanah prayers recited on this day provide a final opportunity to show God one’s sincerity in his/her quest for redemption. Some refer to this day as a second Yom Kippur, but without the fasting. During services, held each day of the Sukkot festival, congregants shake the lulav (a closed frond of the date palm tree together with myrtle and willow) and etrog, a citron found in Israel. This ceremony is reminiscent of the agricultural significance of Sukkot to ancient Israel.

SHEMINI ATZERET – The Hebrew name for the day following Sukkot, meaning, “The Eighth Day of Assembly.” As commanded in the Bible, “On the eighth day, you shall observe a holy convocation and bring sacrifices by fire to the Lord” (Leviticus 23:36). While still living in Sukkot the holiday is observed joyously, as the community celebrates the end of the penitential and fall harvest periods.

SIMCHAT TORAH – “Joy with the Torah,” the so-called “ninth” day of Sukkot, is a celebration of completing the reading of the Torah (Five Books of Moses) and the immediate reading from its beginning. There is no pause between end and beginning of the words of God.

IRON SWORD WAR MEMORIAL DAY – Adopted March 17, 2024. A national day of remembrance for the Nova Music Festival terrorist attack on the evening October 7, 2023 (23 Tishri 5784).

YOM HA-ALIYAH – A national-Israeli holiday commencing in 2016, commemorating those biblical events surrounding the Israelites first entering the Promised Land on 10 Nisan, as described in Joshua 4, as well as acknowledging the contributions of immigrants to the State of Israel. Since 10 Nisan falls near Passover, Israel holds its public celebration on 7 Heshvan, always falling near the reading of parasha Lekh Lekha, Genesis 12:1 - Genesis 17:27, describing the events leading to Abraham’s first entry into the Promised Land.

Some Jewish Calendar Facts for Tishri

- Tishri is the first month of the civil year, and the seventh month of the religious year. The Torah calls Tishri the seventh month (Leviticus 23:24).
- The name Tishri is derived from the Akkadian/Babylonian word Tashritu, meaning “beginning.”
- In the Book of Kings (I Kings 8:2), Tishri is called by its Canaanite name Ethanim.
- Unlike other two-day holidays, Rosh Hashanah is observed on both days in Israel and the Diaspora. Other two-day holidays are observed for just one day in Israel.
- The Zodiac constellation of Tishri is Libra (the scales of justice) because the merits and demerits of all people are weighed in the balance on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

- According to the Talmud seven things happened on Rosh Hashanah: (1) God created the world, (2) Cain and Abel were born, (3) The patriarchs were born, (4) The patriarchs died, (5) Sarah, Rachel, and Hannah were remembered by God and conceived, (6) Joseph left his prison, and (7) Slavery in Egypt ceased.
- On 6 Tishri in 1671, Jewish community of Berlin was organized.
- On 16 Tishri in 1349, the Jewish population of Krems, Germany, was massacred in the Black Death riots.
- On 22 Tishri in 2023, the Nova Music Festival at Kibbutz Be'eri Massacre. Hamas insurgents, representing the militant government of Gaza, murdered over 1,000 Israelis and wounded an additional 2,500, mainly innocent civilians, men, women, and children, in cold blood in a nighttime sneak attack. (See "Iron Sword War Memorial Day," above).
- On 23 Tishri in 1985, Palestinian terrorists hijack the Italian cruise ship, Achille Lauro, murdering American Jew Leon Klinghoffer.
- On 26 Tishri in 1973, the UN Security Council passed a cease-fire resolution to halt the Yom Kippur War.

Rosh Hashanah Customs and Symbols

- Apples and Honey, symbols representing a sweet new year.
- Round Challah shows the circle of life. Some put raisins in the challah for a sweet new year.
- A shofar (ram's horn) is blown to engage the inner soul toward repentance, reflection, and self-assessment, as a way of striving for a more meaningful new year.
- Tashlikh, literally means "You shall throw." A custom, usually performed on in the late afternoon of the first day of Rosh Hashanah, of standing by a flowing body of water as a symbolic act of washing away past sins.

Five Names for Rosh Hashanah

Rosh Hashanah – Beginning of the year,
 Yom Harat Olam – Birthday of the world,
 Yom HaDin – Judgment Day,
 Yom HaZikaron – Remembrance Day, and
 Yom Teruah – Day for sounding the shofar.
