'Penny Meadow Chair' Painting Re-SOLD!

THE PREVIOUS owner of my 1975 'Penny Meadow Chair' painting, Mr Daulby, of Manchester, England, informs me that he has re-sold the item to an anonymous UK buyer for an undisclosed amount.

The painting took its name from a small area of Ashton-under-Lyne, in Manchester, where I lived for a short time in the mid-1970s, and where the work was created. I still remember doing the painting like it was yesterday, all done in one day - alla prima - in Oils on a canvas support.

In May 2010, the writer & critic Angela Roberts, writing for Saatchi's on-line magazine, included 'Penny Meadow Chair' in her top 10 artworks!
