SUNDAY OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED
A Time of Prayer and Remembrance

As we gather this Sunday to celebrate the Sunday of the Faithful Departed, we are reminded of the deep and enduring bond we share with those who have gone before us in faith.

This special day in the liturgical calendar is dedicated to praying for the souls of our departed loved ones, entrusting them to God's infinite mercy and love.

The Church teaches us that our prayers, sacrifices, and acts of charity can aid the souls in their journey toward eternal peace.

This belief reflects the beautiful communion of saints—our connection to the Church triumphant in heaven, the Church suffering in purgatory, and the Church militant here on earth.

Through the Holy Eucharist, we are united with those who have passed from this life. As we light candles, offer Mass intentions, and recite prayers for the departed, we renew our faith in Christ's promise: "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he may die, shall live" (John 11:25).

Let this Sunday be a moment of both remembrance and hope. May our prayers bring comfort to grieving hearts and may our departed brothers and sisters rest in the eternal peace of God's embrace.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

Amen.

Maronite Enrichment Days 2025

St. Ephrem The Man and the Myth

Joseph P. Amar,
PhD

April

30

The Stories We Tell

10:00–11:30 am

We do terrible things to the saints. Instead of modeling ourselves on them, we recreate them in our own image. This session opens with an overview of how the Ephrem of history has been systematically erased and replaced by a caricature of someone who never existed. The reasons for this are as troubling as they are destructive.

Ephrem's World

1:30–3:00 pm

Recovering the Ephrem of history begins by letting him speak for himself, from his own time and place. How did the circumstances of Ephrem's life shape him? How did Ephrem become Ephrem?

May

01

The Work of Your Helper

10:00–11:30 am

How did Ephrem understand himself? He informs us that he has the anointing of heaven, that he speaks for God, that the power that animates and enlivens scripture flows into him, and through him, into his own time. But there are skeletons in his closet: Ephrem carries a dark secret from his past.

Why Ephrem Matters

1:00–2:30 pm

Ephrem's vision offers a path that is simple but hard. It is not the path of orthodoxy (right doctrine) or orthopraxy (right morality) but of orthopathy (authentic spirituality), which is nothing less than an embrace of ROZO.
