

Contents

Introduction to the Handbooks for the Professional Financial Advisor Series.....	xv
Introduction.....	1
The Evolution of my Unique Business Model.....	2
Advisors in All Stages of Their Careers Benefit from a Well-Defined Business Model .....	5
Future Advice Industry Participants.....	5
Team Members (Assistants and Associates).....	5
New Advisors.....	6
Established Advisors .....	6
Advisors Pursuing Referrals from Retiring/Downsizing Advisors.....	8
Advisors Approaching Retirement.....	8
Non-Advisor Industry Participants Benefit from Understanding Advisor’s Business Models.....	11
Advisor Firm Management.....	11
Advisor Firm Support for Advisors and Their Teams.....	12
Advisor Regulators.....	12
Advisors’ Suppliers/Partners.....	13
Components of a Financial Advisor’s Unique Business Model...15
Determine Your Overall Mission and Commitment to Clients.....	15
1. Identify the most compatible clients for your practice.....	17
2. Establish your unique client service model.....	17
3. Determine your processes for delivery of services/products and practice management.....	17
4. Determine needed resources and suppliers/sources.....	17
5. Determine pricing and client costs.....	17
6. Evaluate advisor compensation and career paths.....	17
A Checklist Process to Develop and/or Articulate an Advisor’s Unique Business Model.....	18

Clarify Your Purpose Before You Start Completing Checklists.....19
Order of Completion of Checklists.....20
Considerations During Completion of Checklists.....20

Component 1: Identify the Most Compatible Clients for Your Practice.....21

Step 1: Identify Compatible Groups of Clients and Potential Clients...23
    Professions/Occupations.....24
    Business Owners and Organizations.....25
    Background/Social Groups.....26
    Common Beliefs.....27
    Common Interests.....28
    Age Group.....28
    Family Experiences.....29
    Gender.....30
    Different Advisors Have Different Compatibility Prerequisites .....30
Step 2: Identify Criteria for Sustainable Individual Relationships.....31
    Personality Traits.....31
    Client Goals.....33
    Client Service Requirements.....34
    Client’s Comfort and Preferences Regarding Payment for Advice and Service.....37
    Profitability: Immediate and Potential.....38
Create a Summary of Your Practice’s Compatible Groups and Criteria for Sustainable Clientele.....39

Component 2: Unique Client Service Model.....45

Attributes of a Successful Service Model.....47
    Services Match Compatible, Sustainable Clientele Requirements.....47
    Narrows the Advisor’s Focus.....48
    Visibility of Advisor and Team Effort and Expertise.....48
    Services Must be Reliable, Timely and Accurate Before Being Offered to All Clients.....49
    Affordable for Clients and Advisor.....49
    Scalable to Many Clients.....49

Repeatable to the Same Client.....	50
Advisor Enjoys Their Time at Work .....	50
Background Work for Services Easily Delegated or Outsourced.....	50
Advisor is Proud of Their Service .....	50
Fosters Strong Relationships with Clients .....	51
Flexible, Evolving.....	51
Major Categories of an Advisor’s Unique Service Model.....	51
Client Communication Service Model.....	52
Client Contact Methods .....	54
Client Reminders .....	59
Personal Touches .....	60
Create A Summary of Your Practice’s Communication Services .....	63
Investing Advice Service Model .....	65
Developing and/or Articulating Your Approach to Investing .....	68
Overall Investment Advice Services Checklist .....	70
Educating Clients .....	71
Investment Allocation Decision Flow Chart .....	72
Tax Considerations .....	75
Steps Toward Security Selection for Your Compatible, Sustainable Clients .....	75
Asset Class Exposure Security Sets .....	77
Investment Strategies .....	80
Investment Delivery Vehicles/Securities .....	81
Security/Product Shelf .....	85
Investment Platforms .....	85
Investment Account Types .....	87
Investment Reporting .....	88
Tax Reporting for Investments .....	89
Create a Summary of Your Practice’s Investment Services .....	90
Financial Planning Service Model .....	95
Financial Planning Should be Part of the Present-Day Financial Advisor’s Service Model .....	95
Financial Planning Services Can Distinguish You from Your Competition ...96
History of My Group’s Financial Planning Service .....	96

Developing and/or Articulating Your Financial Planning Services .....98

Overall Financial Planning Services.....100

Steps to Provide Financial Planning Services.....101

Set Realistic Financial Goals.....102

Year By Year Forecasts.....104

Budgeting.....106

Event Expense Planning.....106

Retirement Planning and Advice .....107

Pre-Retirement Analysis and Advice.....107

Pension Advice .....108

Retirement Income and Cash Flow Decisions.....109

Protection Through Legal Documents.....109

Protection Through Insurance.....111

Estate Planning .....111

Preparation Prior to Drafting of Wills .....112

Identify Issues to Raise with Lawyer.....113

Drafting of Wills.....115

Special Situations .....116

Small Business.....117

Disabled Person Strategies.....117

Create a Summary of Your Practice’s Financial Planning Services.....118

Tax Return and Tax Strategies Service Model.....124

Tax Return Services.....124

Tax Strategies.....125

Create a Summary of Your Practice’s Tax Services.....126

Review Your Complete Service Component.....127

    Service Model is Always a “Work in Progress” .....128

Component 3: Processes for Streamlining Delivery of Services and Practice Management.....131

Component 4: Determine Needed Resources and Suppliers/Sources.....133

    Identify Needed Resources and Potential Sources .....134

Software Programs and Tech Tools.....	135
Team.....	136
Training and Education of Advisor and Team.....	137
Client Education.....	137
Marketing.....	138
Investment Research.....	139
Specialists.....	140
Office.....	140
Create a Summary of Your Needed Resources and Potential Sources.....	141
Component 5: Pricing and Client Costs Model.....	145
Attributes of Pricing and Client Cost Models.....	145
Develop and Articulate Your Approach to Pricing and Client Costs....	146
Direct Charges.....	147
Transaction/Trading Charges .....	147
Advisor Annual Fee % Based on Client Assets .....	151
Fee Only (hourly, annual or fee-for-service) .....	155
Fee Based on Performance .....	158
Administration/Operating Charges .....	159
Indirect Charges.....	161
Create a Summary of Your Practice’s Pricing and Client Costs Model...	161
Component 6: Advisor Compensation and Career Paths.....	165
Description of Basic Compensation Structures.....	166
Salaried Advisor Compensation.....	166
Salary Plus Bonus Advisor Compensation.....	166
Revenue Sharing Advisor Compensation.....	167
Advisor Compensation Range.....	168
Advisor Channel Compensation Structure.....	170
Choosing Compensation Structure: Identification of Traits and Attributes.....	170
Advisor Career and Lifestyle Goals.....	171
Desired Responsibilities.....	173
Source of Advisor Enjoyment and Satisfaction.....	174

Advisor Personal Qualities.....174

Advisor Skill Sets .....175

Fit Comparison of Revenue Sharing Versus Salary Advisor
Compensation Models.....176

Client Relationships and Advisor Compensation.....179

Career Paths in Financial Advice.....180

Review Your Business Model as a Whole.....183

Additional Business Model Decisions.....185

Client Household Capacity.....185

Segmentation of Clientele.....185

    Identify Your Criteria for A, B, C and D Segments of Clientele.....186

    Create Your Segmented Clientele Service Model.....188

Key Takeaways.....193

Final Thoughts .....197

Afterword: COVID-19 .....199

Appendix A:.....205

Why Advisors are Not Interchangeable .....205

    Clients’ Distinguishing Characteristics and Needs.....206

    Advisors’ Distinguishing Characteristics.....207

    Advisor Service Model Characteristics.....209

    Good Relationships are Developed Over Time.....210

    Clients Confirm Advisors are Not Interchangeable.....210

Appendix B:.....213

Why Many Full-Service Independent Revenue Sharing Advisors
Have and Deserve Above Average Incomes.....213

    Factors Determining RS Advisor Income.....214

Personal Effort.....214

Personal Qualities.....214

Skill Sets Contributing to the Success of RS Advisors .....215

Experience - Higher Pay Justified for Successful Advisors with Long Careers.....	217
Clients Decide What Their Advisor is Worth to Them.....	218
Firms Compete for Advisors.....	218
Appendix C:.....	219
The Average Advisor of Various Financial Advice Channels.....	219
Acknowledgements .....	223
About the Author.....	225