STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

A person’s basic worth does not come from anything less than God’s unconditional and respectful love for all of His children. We fulfill the commandment to love our neighbor when we exercise good stewardship, joyfully sharing our gifts of life, abilities, and resources to meet our neighbor’s needs. Good stewardship is an offering to God that in some small but real way mirrors Christ’s own life, and a way to return the Father’s great love. The adage that is attributed to St. Francis, “Preach the Gospel, and use words if necessary,” show others that as good steward we have taken to heart the deepest part of God’s message, to love our neighbor as our self. This week think about how your actions show others that great love. If they don’t how can you change that?
