

10 Last-Minute Ideas for Celebrating Father's Day

ON A BUDGET

YOUTUBE VIDEO

Make a video on PowerPoint, save it on Youtube as a video to share on social media. Use words of gratitude and if possible, pictures from the past to let him know how much you appreciate him.

ORDER SOMETHING CUSTOM-MADE )

Order a pair of socks, or a hat, or a shirt with either his picture on it or his name. You can use online companies like Etsy or 4Imprint. You can use the shipping method that can help deliver the item just in time for Father's Day.

MAGAZINE OR STREAMING SERVICE SUBSCRIPTION

You can do a 1-year subscription for your dad's favorite magazine, or a streaming service that he has been wanting. The advantage of a streaming service.

SCRAPBOOK

put together a small scrapbook with pictures or even drawings of your favorite memories of your dad. This is a thoughtful and heartfelt gift idea.

FILL UP THE PANTRY WITH HIS FAVORITE SNACKS

Spend under $50 purchasing some of your dad's favorite snacks for the pantry or the freezer. You will make his day each time he reaches into the pantry or freezer!

PUT TOGETHER A RUDIMENTARY COOKBOOK

Print some recipes of your dad's favorite foods. Make a nice binder of about 15 recipes he can enjoy throughout the rest of the year!

WATCHING HIS FAVORITE MOVIES AND SHOWS

Spend some of the day, or the entire day, lounging around with him to watch his favorite movies and shows! Dads love company and relaxation. You can plan in advance and get some movie snacks and drinks.

DO SOME WORK AROUND THE HOME THAT HE WOULD DO

Does your dad cut the lawn? Does he do the outdoor cleanup? Does he need a shed cleaned out? Volunteer to do one of these activities that he would normally do.

Plan, organize, and execute effectively!
