To Whom It May Concern

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of introduction / recommendation for Stephen Bellosi as a consultant in all things healthcare. Stephen brings a wealth of knowledge to any partnership that includes but is not limited to financial planning, insurance planning, management, re-structuring, as well as marketing.

Moreover, Stephen has a giving attitude and is always going out of his way to help. It has been a pleasure working with him.

I strongly believe that you will be extremely lucky to have Stephen working with you and have no reservations in giving her my highest recommendations.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Oladapo Babatunde
