

Executive BIO- Attorney- Philippe Martinet
Philippe Martinet, Esq.

Founder & Managing Attorney, Martinet Law
Board Certified Specialist in Real Estate Law — Arizona & New York

Philippe Martinet is the Founder and Managing Attorney of Martinet Law, where he represents individuals and businesses in bankruptcy, real estate, commercial, appellate, and complex civil matters. Licensed in both Arizona and New York, he is Board Certified as a Specialist in Real Estate Law by the State Bar of Arizona—an elite distinction held by only a select number of attorneys statewide.

Beyond his technical mastery of the law, Mr. Martinet is driven by a deep commitment to justice and financial relief for those who need it most. His practice is grounded in compassion, advocacy, and a relentless dedication to protecting his clients' futures. As he often states: "I fight for my clients. Their struggle is my drive, and justice is my passion." Whether guiding individuals through financial hardship in bankruptcy proceedings or representing businesses in complex disputes, he approaches every case with purpose, empathy, and resolve.

Mr. Martinet earned his Juris Doctor from the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and International Business, with Honors, from Arizona State University. Supporting his globally informed legal practice, he pursued advanced studies at renowned institutions including the Sorbonne in Paris, the University of Cambridge in England, and the National University of Singapore.

His practice is distinguished by substantial experience in both Arizona state courts and the federal judiciary, including appellate advocacy before the Arizona Supreme Court and civil and criminal appeals in the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the Ninth and Eighth Circuits. Mr. Martinet has litigated high-stakes civil, commercial, and bankruptcy-related matters, bringing precision, strategy, and clarity to complex disputes.

Mr. Martinet's real estate background spans more than two decades. He obtained his real estate license in 2001 and founded Ortus Real Estate Brokerage in 2007. This dual command of law and transactions equips him to guide clients through sophisticated real estate matters—from complex commercial projects to residential and land transactions—with uncommon depth and efficiency. Fluent in English, French, Spanish, Italian, and Portuguese, Mr. Martinet serves a diverse client base with a truly international perspective. He is recognized for his analytical rigor, practical counsel, and unwavering commitment to achieving client-centered results—ensuring every client is heard, protected, and empowered.

No matter how complex your matter may be, rest assured—you are in capable and trusted hands with Attorney Philippe Martinet.
