

Leadership Education and Development
an LCC program

Discover Your Voice. Shape Your Future.

L.E.A.D. is Columbiana County's top leadership development program for emerging leaders across Education, Government, Business, Arts & Entertainment, Media, Sports, and Family/Faith. This nine-month course—run by Leadership Columbiana County (LCC) and Dr. Tim Figley—is designed to help you lead yourself, your organization, and your community with clarity, conviction, and purpose.

Who Should Apply?

L.E.A.D. is for you if you are:

- A rising leader who wants to grow personally and professionally
- Someone passionate about shaping the future of Columbiana County
- Seeking meaningful development in leadership, communication, and cultural impact
- Ready to move from success to significance

What You'll Gain

- Personal Clarity: Understand who you are and how you lead.
- Professional Tools: Develop skills in emotional intelligence, innovation, AI, and team building.
- Public Readiness: Learn how to influence policies, platforms, and systems that shape society.
- Lasting Community: Build meaningful relationships with like-minded leaders across sectors.
- Your Life Vision: Create a personal roadmap using the 3 Most Important Questions (3MIQ) framework.
