The Cantata Singers of Elmira Present:

“The Promise of Spring”

Sunday March 24, 2024 @ The First Congregational Church 171 W, Pulteney St. Corning, NY Free and Open to All.

Welcome to this, the second concert of our 60th anniversary season presenting free choral performances to our community. We are grateful for your presence here today as an appreciative and engaged audience.

Nature is full of uncomposed music and some of today's concert seeks to bring nature's music into this hall. We hope you enjoy these pieces, and all our offerings as much as we have enjoyed preparing them for you. The cycle of the seasons is especially on my mind as we leave another Winter behind, anticipate Spring just around the corner, and look forward to our big celebration of the anniversary and the Story Music Project in July.

Today's performance, the July celebration, and all future seasons can happen only through the ongoing and generous support of the music lovers who form our audience. Thank you for being part of that audience, and thanks for all the support you give in whatever form it takes.

Jeff DeMeritt, Cantata Singers President
