"We can play outside!"

Today's school-age children are required to have a coat to be able to enjoy outdoor activities when the temperatures drop below a certain degree. Unfortunately many children don't have the basics - much less a home to go back to or a guaranteed meal when they get there. Now imagine the additional social pressures that go along with being "different or without" and you can get a sense for what many children of poverty, abuse and neglect are experiencing.

I have always had a soft spot for children and as a father of two boys, I wanted to teach them the power of giving back. Living in a thriving Dallas suburb, you don't realize that the need is in your backyard. I founded McNeese Kids because of situations just like this. And I was proud to be able to donate over $2,000 of coats, gloves and hygiene bags to a local Mesquite, Texas school who reached out. "We serve 560 students - close to 90% are lower socioeconomic class and 10 are homeless. Students that have their basic needs met can focus on their studies and feel confident...gain their dignity..and maybe avoid the teasing that comes with being different", said the school principal.

This is just one of many areas where McNeese Kids has been able to make an impact. McNeese Kids' mission is focused on helping children to be the best version of themselves and aligns around four core areas: Homelessness / Shelter, Abuse and Neglect / Safety, Hunger / Nutrition and Development / Esteem. Through creative fundraising and amazing donors and volunteers, McNeese Kids has been able to donate over $200,000 to our three local partner charities: Jonathan's Place, Samaritan Inn and North Texas Food Bank. We have been able to rally volunteers to staff food packing assembly lines, sponsor an Angel Tree for the homeless - and even shop for every child!

And because we maintain a low 1.5% operating cost model with a nimble 100% volunteer staff, we are able to maximize the dollars that go to the children.

But there is more to do - and that's where you come in!

Please consider a financial donation to McNeese Kids. I promise that we will be stewards of your dollars and a catalyst to getting the resources to at-risk and in-need Dallas area children.

We look forward to teaming with you to improve the lives of our children!

Sincerely,
Jim McNeese

McNeese Kids is a 100% volunteer women-led veteran-founded 501(c)3 focused on at-risk and in-need children in the Dallas metroplex.

Our Strategy

McNeese Kids uses Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs to inform the areas of focus and have built relationships with Dallas-based charities that align with the mission and share the board's values. Current partners include Jonathan's Place, Samaritan Inn and North Texas Food Bank.

McNeese Kids raises funds by hosting the McNeese Kids Annual Charity Golf Tournament, receipt of corporate sponsorships and individual donations.

We select one pillar each year as our primary focus and donate the majority of our fundraising dollars to that charity; however all charities and the grant program will be allocated funds each year. By working directly with these organizations, we provide financial support and volunteer resources.

McNeese Kids rallies volunteers for activities benefiting local children in need.

McNeese Kids

OUR PARTNERS

McNeese Kids carefully selects local charities that align with our mission, four pillars - Homelessness / Shelter, Abuse and Neglect / Safety, Hunger / Nutrition and Development / Esteem - and the values of the Board of Directors, to be the beneficiaries of our fundraising efforts.

By working directly with these organizations, we are able to provide financial support and additional volunteer resources.

The Samaritan Inn is more than just a place to spend the night. Our program takes a holistic approach that supports those experiencing homelessness with everything they need and teaches them life skills to expedite their journey back to self-sufficiency.

saminn.org

The mission of Jonathan's Place is to provide a safe place, loving homes, and promising futures for abused and neglected children, teens, and young adults.

jpkids.org

Founded in 1982, the North Texas Food Bank (NTFB) is a nonprofit hunger relief organization that distributes donated and purchased foods through a network of more than 200 Partner Agencies in 13 counties.

McNeese Kids Expands its Mission to Help Children in Need

November 23, 2022 | press

Dallas, Texas, Nov 23, 2022 // - - McNeese Kids announced the creation of the McNeese Kids Grant Program and new pillar focused on a child's personal development and self-esteem.

The McNeese Kids Grant Program allows both individuals and organizations to apply for resource assistance on behalf of children struggling with hunger, homelessness, abuse/neglect or personal development and self-esteem issues. This fourth pillar will allow McNeese Kids to fund educational and recreational programs and the resources necessary for a child to participate.

"I have always had a soft spot for kids and a passion for giving back. And I have seen children going without the basics that they need to live – much less thrive. We founded McNeese Kids to address the issues in our own backyard," said Jim McNeese, Founder and President McNeese Kids.

McNeese Kids uses Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs to inform their areas of focus and have built relationships with three Dallas-based charities that align with the mission and share the board's values: Jonathan's Place, Samaritan Inn and North Texas Food Bank. Through individual and corporate sponsors, the McNeese Kids Annual Charity Golf Tournament and a modest 1.5% operating expense spend, McNeese Kids has been able to donate over $200,000 in its first two years to these three organizations. And now with the expanded mission, McNeese Kids can respond to the immediate and urgent needs of the children of our community.

"We are proud to have been awarded the first McNeese Kids Grant. This donation provides us with coats, pants, beanies, gloves, scarves, and hygiene kits for homeless and in need children in the district this winter," said a teacher at the Dallas-area school.

In addition to funding, McNeese Kids helps to rally volunteers. With efforts like Christmas shopping for Jonathan's Place or food packing shifts at the North Texas Food Bank, McNeese Kids is hands on with its partners.

"Unfortunately, there will always be children who need our help. And as long as there is a need, there will be a McNeese Kids," said Jim McNeese.
