

The Dover Symphony Orchestra is a non-profit organization which provides live performances of classical and orchestral music to the central Delaware public. Annually, we present four programs. We have offered affordable family entertainment to the Central Delaware area for over 48 years. The mission of the Dover Symphony is to engage a diverse audience in the region, inspire musical growth in amateur and professional performers through challenging and exceptional orchestral performances, and inspire area youth through participation in and attending of concerts.

The Dover Symphony's vision is to expand the audience for and appreciation of classical music in lower Delaware. We are seeking your financial support to continue our vision and mission. Expenses of a community orchestra include: rental fees for rehearsal, storage and performance space; compensation of the Music Director; rental and purchase of music; advertising; printing of tickets, posters and concert programs and miscellaneous administrative expenses.
