

The background of the slide is a repeating pattern of circular logos for the Grand Strand Genealogy Club. Each logo features a stylized tree in the center, with the text "Grand Strand Genealogy Club" around the top inner edge and "South Carolina" at the bottom. The logos are arranged in a grid and are semi-transparent, allowing the text to be clearly visible.

Wiki: (Hawaiian) Fast, Quick.

What is the FamilySearch Wiki?

The background of the image is a repeating pattern of circular logos for the Grand Strand Genealogy Club. Each logo features a stylized tree in the center, with the text "Grand Strand Genealogy Club" curved along the top inner edge and "South Carolina" at the bottom. The logos are light green and semi-transparent, creating a subtle grid across the entire page.

The FamilySearch Wiki is a collection of resources that you can use for your Genealogical Research.

What the FamilySearch Wiki is not.

The FamilySearch Wiki is not a database where you can search for documents about your Ancestors. Rather, it is a database of resources that you can search to find information on your Ancestors. Hence you can search the Wiki by location or topic, but not by a name.
