TOUR DESCRIPTIONS

ST. AUGUSTINE TOUR
Thursday, Oct 21

Aboard private trolleys, learn how St. Augustine became the "Oldest Continuously Occupied City in the United States." Listen to stories of Magnolia Street, known as one of the most beautiful streets in America. You will hear of Henry Flagler and his three wives and see many of the buildings that Henry had built. Marvel at the Spanish architecture and many historical sites. You're sure to enjoy this fully narrated tour of St. Augustine, covering more than 100 points of interest and over 500 years of history. Not only will it be educational, but entertaining as well! After the tour, stroll down the restored St. George Street, lined with quaint shops, art galleries, and restaurants. You're also free to tour some of the historic buildings you saw on the tour (admissions on your own). You may want to see Castillo de San Marcos, a fort built by the Spanish over 300 years ago. Enjoy free time on your own for shopping, lunch, and exploring before returning to Jacksonville.

ALHAMBRA DINNER THEATRE

Thursday, Oct 21

Spend an enjoyable evening at Alhambra Dinner Theatre. Start off with a sumptuous served dinner with your choice of several entrees. Dreaming of baseball and girls, Eugene must cope with the mundane existence of his family life in Brooklyn: formidable mother, overworked father, and his worldly older brother Stanley. Throw into the mix his widowed Aunt Blanche and her two young (but rapidly aging) daughters and you have a recipe for hilarity served up Simon-style.
