BIOGRAPHY

Long time friends Pierre Lacroix and Big Joe Hix have been rocking the decks all over the U.S. for nearly 2 decades as the Midnite Jackers. They have released over 50+ tracks on some of the hottest labels in house music such as Play it Say it, Coyote Cuts, and Doin' Work just to name a few. Their performances are legendary and represent their music production as you would expect. Some of the Industry's top sites have even stepped up to notice. Red Bull music named them as a top pick for "Artists on the Rise" after their first time seeing their performance at the Movement Electronic Music Festival. Since then they've toured the U.S. and lived up to their hype with their repeated appearances and aggressive production schedule.

Both Pierre Lacroix and Big Joe Hix have storied careers as individuals but their combined forces make for a great headlining act.

"Deep, Funky Jacking house music are their tools of the trade" and these two master selectors will surely keep you moving on the dance floor.
