BIG JOE HIX

BIOGRAPHY

Born and raised in the city that has shaped his soul, Joe Hix is a Detroit through and through. Big Joe's 20 year+ DJ career has taken him across the United States performing in the country's top clubs and festivals as a top Headliner. With two decades of Accolades in the music Industry, here are just a few highlights of his illustrious career. Not only has he performed at the United States premier festival: Movement as well as Detroit's longest running festival: Dally in the Alley, he has been asked to return to perform many times over. As a producer, Joe is one half of the Chart topping "Midnite Jackers" whose numerous releases and remixes can be found on vinyl and every major digital site as well as some of the smaller ones. The past few years has seen Joe do more solo production work and his upcoming releases on many labels have already been charted by some of the worlds best performers and musicians. With over thirty releases behind him, Joes production is heavily sought after.

Big Joe's personality behind the decks is best described as Funky as Fuck. With style and grace, Joe has an uncanny ability to read the dance floor and bring a unique mix of House and Techno that can best be described as Pure Detroit Style.

With the Midnite Jackers getting lots of airtime and his new solo studio project, Joe has been in demand a lot recently. With upcoming tours stateside and new releases coming out regularly, Big Joe Hix is going to be all up in you.
