I'm work - in' on the grind build - ing my fut - ure chang - ing my life Step by step yeah,

I'm reach - ing new heights No turn - ing back fut - ure's sight in I keep climb ing- I'm on the rise Every dream that I have I'ma hold it real tight Prov - ing my worth when on the mic

Verse One

Late nights, early mornings, I'm locked in the zone,
 Turning all my struggles into fuel for my throne.
 Had to break habits, leave the old ways behind,
 Now I sharpen every skill, elevate my mind.
 Vision so clear, I can't waste no time,
 Invest in myself, every dollar, every dime.
 I ain't perfect, but I'm learning on the way
 Planting seeds today, watch 'em blossom when I pray.
 Every step I take, yeah, I'm breaking the chains
 Turning pressure to diamonds from the pain that I gain
 Life threw me lessons, I caught every one
 Now I'm leveling up, and the work just begun.
 No shortcuts here, I'm building brick by brick
 Grinding in the dark, so the shine gon' stick.
 I believe in the process, I believe in the climb
 And I'll never let fear come and silence my shine.

Verse Two

Doubt tried to stop me, but I kept on my path
 Turned pain into purpose, turned tears into laughs.
 Now I'm focused, discipline tight like a fist
 Every setback just a plot twist.
 Dreams on my board, I'm checking off goals
 Stacking up wins, turning losses into gold
 From the struggle to the shine, I define my fate,
 I'm leveling up it's never too late
 I'm running my race, can't compare to the rest
 It's me vs. me, I'ma give it my best.
 Every scar on my soul is a story of fight,
 Now they feel every bar when I'm holding this mic.
 Future on the line, gotta carry that weight,
 I'm writing my legacy, sealing my fate.
 This grind is forever, no it ain't just a phase,
 I'm chasing my light 'til the end of my days.
