

Donor Transparency

The Alexia Network Foundation, recognized as a tax-exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, is steadfastly committed to transparency and integrity.

As a public trust, we enjoy tax exemptions and may avail ourselves of government programs designated for nonprofit entities. However, this status obliges us to maintain nonpartisanship and refrain from endorsing political candidates.

In our dedication to transparency, we vow to publicly disclose donors who contribute $5,000 or more annually. This pledge underscores our commitment to openness and accountability.

Receipt of financial contributions does not signify our endorsement of donors or their affiliations. The Alexia Network Foundation is a nonpartisan nonprofit dedicated to journalistic integrity. Our editorial decisions remain independent of donor influence; contributors neither dictate nor scrutinize our content.

We decline donations from political organizations, elected officials, or aspiring candidates to uphold our journalistic integrity. We diligently avoid conflicts of interest that could compromise our mission or impartiality.

At the heart of our nonprofit journalism lies a steadfast commitment to our communities and the preservation of public trust. Our dedication to serving all stakeholders in Arizona remains unwavering as we deliver news that is free from
