

Children's Advocacy Center of East Central Illinois

Crisis Interventionist – position begins June 11, 2018

Application deadline: May 11, 2018

The Children's Advocacy Center of East Central Illinois: CACECI is a non-profit agency that serves ten counties: Coles, Clark, Cumberland, Douglas, Edgar, Effingham, Fayette, Jasper, Moultrie, and Shelby. The Children's Advocacy Center is known for the great care we take with clients.

CACECI provides a neutral and safe, child-friendly place where victimized children and their families can receive needed services. Our staff continues to support families throughout the judicial process. Our goal is to improve the community's response to children who have been victims of sexual or serious physical abuse.

Employees at the Children's Advocacy Center are provided with training opportunities to support their professional development, flexible hours to best meet the needs of clients, and a uniquely challenging workload that makes every day interesting. We believe in providing compassionate services to each of our clients; our employees have the unique opportunity to make a difference to these children and their families.

Requirements:

- Must be licensed in the State of Illinois as a Professional Counselor (LPC)
- Specialty training and experience in the child abuse field with particular emphasis on child abuse and trauma informed, evidence based therapy practices (TF-CBT)
- Valid Driver's License

Responsibilities:

- Provide on-site crisis support and counseling to clients during their initial contact with the Children's Advocacy Center
- Conduct assessments to inform referrals for additional services
- Maintain on-going support for a caseload of clients through in-person counseling, phone counseling, and other contacts

The Location: The Children's Advocacy Center of East Central Illinois is based in Charleston and a satellite location is operated in Effingham.
