

Authorization for Release of Confidential Information

INTRODUCTION

This document authorizes Santa Rosa Counseling Center LLC to release and obtain protected and confidential information including, but not limited to, medical, mental health, substance abuse treatment, legal, academic, and vocational records as specified below. The release of third-party information, including records received from other providers, is authorized unless otherwise specified or prohibited. Information may be released verbally, in copy form, or electronically to include fax and/or computer transmission. The records owner or custodian is authorized to act on behalf of a copy of this original form.
