

Recovery of Human Remains

COURSE SCHEDULE:

DAY 1	8:00 AM – 12:00 PM	Classroom Training – Topics to be covered include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What is Forensic Anthropology? Human vs. Non-human Skeletal Remains Forensic Significance and Contextual Importance Forensic Taphonomy Human Osteology (Brief Overview) Recovery of Human Remains Locating Human Remains Survey and Mapping Techniques Types of Burials Recovery Procedures (Surface vs. Burial)
	1:00 PM – 5:00 PM	Mock Crime Scene – Locating Burial and Excavation of Buried Remains Locate possible buried remains and begin excavation of buried human remains
DAY 2	8:00 AM – 12:00 PM	Mock Crime Scene – Excavation of Buried Remains Cont. Continued excavation of buried human remains
	1:00 PM – 5:00 PM	Mock Crime Scene – Documentation & Collection of Buried Remains Conduct documentation using photography and hand mapping techniques of buried human remains Collect and inventory recovered human remains and any associated evidence
DAY 3	8:00 AM – 9:00 AM	Classroom Mapping Activity Documentation and mapping of scattered human remains in the classroom
	9:00 AM – 2:00 PM	Mock Crime Scene – Surface Skeletal Remains Practice techniques used to locate human skeletal remains on the surface and thoroughly document remains using photography and hand mapping techniques
	2:00 PM – 5:00 PM	Case Study Review & Final Exam