REV. MARVIN WINHAM

Greetings Church Family,

How long has it been since you have had a guest over to your house? Someone besides a family member. Maybe it has been a while. Are you picky about who is invited to come inside your home? Do you have to make special arrangements before someone can be invited over? I think we all have different preferences in this. Many that I know, tend to want to know exactly who and when a guest will arrive, so you can prepare to receive them with a clean home with enough refreshments (food hot off the grill) purchased and it all ready to be enjoyed. I personally find it rather embarrassing if a guest comes to my home and I don't have something to offer them to eat or drink.

This question was raised in Psalm 15:1 as to who could be a guest in the LORD's house (your sacred tent)? The question is then answered in verses 2-5, as the Lord's guests must be: blameless, righteous, speaks truth, no slander or slur of the tongue, does no wrong to our neighbor, does not support a person's sin, gives honor to those who live to the Lord, a person who lives by their word. Yep you guessed it, nobody fits that as a guest, it would take a perfect guest who could fit all those requirements. But by the grace of God and mercy of the Cross and through faith in Christ because that perfect guest and He is able to transform us into being accepted by our relationship with Him as an additional guest in the Father's house. I sure am thankful he invites me into His tent for He always has something prepared.

Love to All,
Bro. Marv
