New Application

PLEASE INDICATE YOUR INTEREST IN VOLUNTEERING FOR ANY OF THE FOLLOWING TROOPS:

Welcome Troop

Sends out new member packages.

Education Troop

Assists with the education of owners and potential owners.

Recapture/Rescue "K-9" Troop

In the event a primate escapes, either a member or nonmember, this troop will be in charge of helping to gather volunteers to help find and recapture any primate who has gotten loose. They will be in charge of posting within the group to keep members up-to-date on what is going on, and notifying members when a primate has been found and captured.

Legislation Troop

Keeps up with pending legislation across the US. Will help let members know what is happening and what can be done to help stop bans and so forth. If a group is needed to appear in force to help educate members of the government or send emails, make phone calls, etc, this troop will coordinate these endeavors to maintain our rights to own primates.

Vet Troop

Creates and maintains an active list of veterinarians by state who will see primates; complete with information about the clinic, whether emergency services are available, and any stipulations to the primates seen.

Bereavement Troop

In charge of sending out cards of condolences to any members or nonmember within the community who lost their primate.

Linda & Lana New Beginnings Troop

Locates new homes for primates who are in need. Coordinates getting the primate to their new home.

Breeder Troop

Members, especially breeders, working toward improving the breeding, especially from a genetics and health standpoint, of our primates.

Fundraising Troop

Brainstorms, coordinates and keeps up with all of the fundraising for the organization. Keeps members informed of current fundraisers, their progress and outcomes.

Recruiting Troop

Brainstorms and coordinates ways of increasing the organization's membership.
