

Fields that will be scrutinized when property tax questions or issues are submitted for the ballot to the Logan County Board of Elections:

Resolution of Necessity

Entity

What type of Election (Primary, Special, General)

Election Date

The area of the district to be valued (Generally the entire district)

The millage being considered

The purpose of the levy

The length of the levy

What year it will begin

What year it will first be collected

What years it will appear on the tax list

What section of the Ohio Revised Code the purpose is authorized to be collected for

Whether the levy is an additional or renewal

Approval from majority of council/trustees/board

Date adopted

Fiscal Officer Certification

Auditor's Certificate

When the Resolution of Necessity was adopted

The millage being considered

The entity that it is being prepared for

The section of the Revised Code that is cited

The date of the election

Whether its additional or renewal

The amount of revenue to be produced by the millage requested by the levy

The total taxable value of the district

The millage being considered and the amount that it would equal per $100,000 of value

Auditor Signature

Date Signed

Resolution to Proceed

Entity

Purpose of the Levy, with the Revised Code citation

Millage

Amount per $100,000

Length of Levy

What years the levy will appear on the tax list

Estimated Annual Collection Amount

Identifying whether levy is additional or renewal and the millage of the levy

What type of election

Election Date

Approval from majority of council/trustees/board

Date adopted

Fiscal Officer Certification