“The first person I call when I need an event to be flawlessly organized and expertly managed is Taylor from LvL4 Events. From logistics to providing well-seasoned FOH staff for my catering events and private dinners, Taylor consistently delivers seamless execution. She has a sharp eye for detail and a strong understanding of service flow, ensuring every event runs smoothly from start to finish. The cherry on top is her professionalism and the positive energy she brings to any team.”

Chef Tiana Gee, Chef + Owner of SoulPhil & The Medley Hospitality”

“As a Chef our main concern is the food production and service during an event. I hired Taylor and having her in the culinary event management role allowed me to focus on just that. Her professionalism, attention to detail, sourcing of supplies and rentals, creation of client proposal deck and more is unparalleled! I was extremely impressed with her work and I look forward to working with her on my next event”
