portrait styles

Traditional Headshot >>>

Professional posing, lighting and background.

This is the style to choose if want to project the look of success and true professionalism.

Ideal for: Corporate leaders, financial, insurance, health professionals

<<< Editorial Headshot

Natural posing, lighting and background.

A blend between traditional and lifestyle, this style is less formal than the traditional headshot, portraying more personality, but in a studio or indoor setting.

Ideal for: Small business owners, performing artists, designers

Lifestyle Headshot >>>

Candid posing, outdoor lighting and background.

Built for those who are on the move for a living, or want to portray a fun side. This style is more candid and is meant to capture a lifestyle.

Typically half or full body shots.

Ideal for: Real estate agents, traveling sales, dating apps
