Pastor and I want to thank all those that worked at the landscaping work party. It looks great. Keep watching for the final product. We are so thankful!!!!

Pastor and I also want to thank Stacie Boggess and Erin Herdman for their work on Mother's Day! I want everyone to know that the wonderful words I spoke regarding Sharon were written by Stacie Boggess. She always does such a great job writing and getting the essence of what needs to be said. I think Sharon was surprised!!!!
