

SHOOT HORIZONTALLY! Please also try to shoot in a space with the least number of distractions like clutter and noise. I need to see you and hear you as much as possible.

Please send via agent if you can wetransfer to me at ladielcastings@gmail.com with YOUR NAME and ROLE in the MESSAGE!

SLATE (together if a couple):

Please state name, height, and city of residence – what is on your ID. Must be a local hire.

SEPARATE SCENES – PLEASE TAKE TWO TAKES WITH VARIOUS EXPRESSIONS:

Man: Facing towards camera, you are trying to push a cart, but it won't budge. Your wife is nearby and gives you a disappointed look. You play it off cool, and try again to push the cart, but it doesn't work. Finally, you shake your hands, rub your palms together to rub some friction, and push the cart one last time and it goes. You walk slowly with it enjoying a moment of victory! Maybe you flex at a witness or smile at your wife while you pass by. You land at the elevator and feel victorious.

Woman: You are at the checkout counter at a hotel. You get your key card and watch your husband struggle to push the bell cart. You are not amused. He tries again, but nothing happens. Finally, after giving his hands a good shake and rubbing them together he gives it one more push and it goes which surprises you, but who cares. As long as the bags make it to the elevator, which they do. Yay!
