Subject: Reconsideration Request of Visitor Visa Application Refusal

Dear Officer,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing this reconsideration letter with a heavy heart in response to the refusal letter dated XXXXXXXXXX, regarding my visitor visa application. I genuinely believe that there might have been an error in the decision made by IRCC, and I humbly request a reconsideration of my application based on the following points.

I understand that the refusal was based on three main reasons, which I would like to address:

1. Intention to Depart Canada: Contrary to the first reason cited in the refusal letter, I assure you that I have every intention of leaving Canada at the end of my authorized stay. In my initial application, I provided substantial evidence of my strong ties to my home country. I attached documentation of my XXXXX as an XXXXX XXXX at XXXXX, highlighting my commitment to my current role. Furthermore, I provided an XXXXXXr confirming my active pursuit of a bachelor's degree, which is a testament to my dedication to completing my education in my home country. Additionally, XXXXXX XXXXXXXX commitments and responsibilities ensure my return to my home country upon the conclusion of my visit to Canada.

2. Financial Sufficiency: The claim made in the refusal letter that my assets and financial situation are insufficient is inaccurate. At the time of my application, I maintained approximately $XXXXXXX in my bank account, which I believe is ample to cover the expenses associated with my trip to Canada. My XXXXX invitation letter, which accompanied my application, clearly indicated her willingness and ability to provide me with financial support during my stay. She currently holds approximately $XXXXXX. Moreover, my XXXXXX graciously offered to cover my accommodation and travel expenses while in Canada. This combination of my personal funds and my XXXXXX support should alleviate any concerns regarding my ability to finance my trip.

3. Purpose of Visit: The third reason cited for the refusal, concerning the inconsistency of my visit's purpose with a temporary stay, is perplexing to me. My intention to visit Canada was explicitly stated as XXXXXX—

In light of these clarifications, I kindly request that you reconsider your decision regarding my visitor visa application. I remain steadfast in my commitment to adhering to all Canadian immigration regulations and returning to my home country at the conclusion of my visit.

I genuinely appreciate your time and consideration of my request for reconsideration. I am more than willing to provide any additional documentation or information that may aid in your assessment of my application. Thank you for your attention to this matter, and I eagerly await your positive response.

Sincerely,

XXXXX
