SPEAKER

As a speaker, Jaye shares her shoot-straight-from-the-hip, heartfelt and practical messages with her audiences like a long lost sister or Auntie, providing them with eye-opening truths, motivation and tools to succeed in spite of any circumstance. She prides herself on having beauty business owners take a deeper look into their businesses showing them hidden treasures within, along with learning their customer's true reasons for doing business with them.

As a 20 year veteran she strives to celebrate and uplift the industry that everyone seems to want a piece of. And to speak often to new professionals, members of the industry who too often feel ignored and who too often get left behind.

With such great responsibilities to live up to Jaye is just excited about having more opportunities to both learn and share her knowledge. Primarily interested in helping others see the value in themselves; Jaye feels that boxing yourself in is not an option, she's the self-proclaimed buck the system kind of woman whose mission is it to draw out the value in others and to be an example that nothing can hold you back from what you want to be, do or have.

"Jaye Renee' is totally amazing. The 6 Figure Stylist gave me the direction and insights that I needed to operate my hair styling business."
