 STUNT COORDINATOR * STUNTMAN * PRO DRIVER ***
 2ND UNIT DIRECTOR * * PRODUCER * ACTION ACTOR ***
• TV & RADIO PERSONALITY *

From birth, Rich Hopkins, (affectionately known as the “King of Extreme”), developed a taste for adrenaline!!... “My First “Stunt” was when my dad would throw me up in the air and catch me as a toddler”, “One time I crashed into the headboard on my way down...and the rest is History”. As a kid, Rich never did acquire a “mainstream” sport mentality. “It seemed that I was always on the Losing Team. But, “I” didn’t suck. Everyone else did!!”. So he decided early on that “Individualized Sports” were best for him. “This way I can be accountable if I pull it off or not”. Not 5 or 10 other guys.!!”

Bouncing around the country with his airline pilot father that was transferred city to city, Rich adapted quickly to meeting new people. After settling back in his birth place of San Diego in the mid 70’s, HE was finally HOME!

I loved Torrey Pines High School in Del Mar, California. “It was a great experience, cool atmosphere and fun friends “Surfing for Phys Ed class was awesome!” even though my “Theater Production” teacher failed me, and he told me that I would NEVER be in the “Entertainment Business” Rich proved him wrong... To date, Rich is one of the.. if not THE most accomplished TPHS Alumni in the Film & TV industry to date!

“All I wanted in life was to be a “PRO Surfer”. In 1984, After suffering a broken neck as a passenger in a serious “head on” car collision, that dream was over.... However, while in the hospital, Rich was diagnosed with an “ASD Arterial Septal Defect” (Hole in the Heart) Dr. Pat Daley came to the rescue on “Cinco De Mayo” 1986 and performed precision surgery. Rich has overcome multiple injuries and surgeries. (List Available)

In 1986, Rich had the good fortune of working with motivational pioneer, Anthony Robbins. Rich worked his way through the “Mail Room” to become one of Tony’s assistants, Rich visited in his “Del Mar Castle” on occasion, and even took his kids surfing. Being affiliated with Tony’s company, Rich had opportunities of attending other “speakers” events and learn from them as well. Finally, Rich had the urge and told “Tony” “Thanx for everything but, my dream is not to work for you, I want to be in the Film & TV industry”, so he left and headed to “LA” in the Summer of 1988.

After booking a bunch of “gigs” as a struggling actor, Rich realized that he could utilize his “Action Sports” knowledge to segue his career into “Stunts”.
