

NEWSLETTER

Principle Research Solutions
Fall 2020 Edition

We would like to welcome you to our first ever newsletter. Our team is excited to be able to connect with you outside of the office.

Each newsletter will highlight which clinical trials are currently enrolling and give you heads up on which trials are coming up in the near future.

We also would like to take this opportunity and introduce you to our team of doctors and staff members who are always happy to see you. In this issue we bring you Dr. Richard Gower.

As we all know, the COVID pandemic the last couple of months has not been easy for anyone.

“Fun Fact”

The first controlled clinical trial of the modern era was conducted in 1747 by physician James Lind.

MEET ONE OF OUR PROVIDERS

DR. RICHARD GOWER

Richard Gower, MD, is Principal Investigator/Owner of Marycliff Clinical Research and Principal Investigator at Principle Research Solutions, both in Spokane, Washington. He is also a Past Clinical Associate Professor of Medicine at the University of Washington School Of Medicine and on the staff of Sacred Heart Medical Center. He has been primary investigator in more than 150 clinical studies on the treatment of asthma, allergic rhinitis/conjunctivitis, sinusitis, atopic dermatitis, chronic urticaria, bronchitis, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, and hereditary angioedema (HAE).

Dr. Gower has presented papers at national and international meetings concerning diseases of the respiratory tract, as well as urticaria and angioedema and is the author of several publications regarding hereditary angioedema, including two international consensus guideline papers, and has participated in many urticaria and angioedema education sessions.

Dr. Gower is semi-retired from practice and enjoys spending time with his family at the lake and his regular golf games with friends.
