All Members must agree to follow the AIR Code of Ethics:

1. To strive, through education and fellowship, to improve the understanding of the repossession industry by the financial lending community we serve.
2. To improve our industry's relationship with all governing bodies and law enforcement agencies.
3. To encourage each Illinois licensee to join the Illinois Association of Licensed Repossessors and become involved in the association's goals and functions.
4. To work with each other to improve the spirit of cooperation and level of education for the betterment of the repossession industry.
5. To conduct business in a professional and courteous manner.
6. To promote business with integrity and a proper respect for our fellow reposseors and clients.

By becoming a member, I agree to follow the AIR Code of Ethics. Membership may be revoked at any time by violating the AIR code of ethics. Violations will be held under review by the AIR board of directors.

Political Action Committee (PAC)

AIR's PAC fund supports our lobbyist in the act of attempting to influence decisions made by officials in the Illinois government. AIR's lobbyists work with the Illinois legislators on behalf the AIR origination to explain the obstacles our industry faces and to work with lawmakers to correct and amend these laws. AIR also aids in preserving the current laws in place to help protect the reposseors.

I would like to contribute to the AIR fund in addition to my membership fee in the amount of: $ _____.
