Preschool News

Each class has their own Christmas concert/Celebration planned. Please read your attached invitation carefully to be sure to not miss celebrating with your child. They have been practicing so hard.

What we will be Learning:

This month we will be learning the letters I & J, about winter, Why we celebrate Christmas, and having Christmas fun. We have many Christmas crafts and activities planned

Notices

- WOW it's December already! As December is a short but busy month, we will NOT be having Show and Tell. A new schedule will be made in January.
- There will be NO scholastic order made in December
- Please remember to send a water bottle (NO JUICE BOXES), a NUT FREE snack of only 1 or 2 items to ensure your child has time to participate in all the classroom activities.
- Follow us on Facebook to see reminders, updates and weekly peeks at our learning
- Your Handbook folders have a magnetic business card with teacher contact information for absences
