A LEGACY THAT SHINES IN JERUSALEM

At the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance (JAMD), Jewish, Christian, and Muslim students learn, create, and perform together, proving every day that art can build bridges where politics cannot.

On December 22, 2025, the Academy will host The Day of Hope, a landmark concert and documentary celebrating the universal language of art as a force for unity in a divided world. This historic event will bring together artists and audiences from across Israel and around the globe to remind us that humanity can still find harmony.
