

The House Investigation Committee update to the Texian people. On September 9, 2023, the committee prepared and voted on impeachments and indictments which were sent to the 27th House of Representatives to be voted on. Both the impeachments and the indictments were passed unanimously. The impeachments and indictments were then sealed and hand-delivered to the Senate for trial, on September 21, 2023. The 27th Congress is dedicated to continuing our effort to bring transparency , secure election's and protect the sovereignty of our Nation of the republic of Texas.

Philippians 4:13

I am able to do all things in Him who empowers me.

Respectfully,

Matthew Cordova
Representative Bexar County
Chair of the House Investigation Committee