

The Miners are Reclaiming

C Ami F C C

Have you e - ver seen the fal-con as it soars a - cross the sky? You know that might - y Have you e - ver heard the riv - er as it cour - ses through the pine? The rag - ing of its

Ami F G7 C Ami F

rap - tor, the fast - est bird a - live. As it soars a - bove the hill - side where the earth did yield a mine, cur - rent, ever rac - ing through its clime. As it tum - bles through the val - ley where the men once made a mine,

E C Ami F C F C

the min - ers are re - claim - ing for the fal-con and its kind. The min - ers are re - the min - ers are re - claim - ing and the riv - er will be fine. The min - ers are re -

Ami F C Ami D7 G

claim - ing for the fal-con and its kind. Oh what I'd give to see, claim - ing and the riv - er will be fine.

Dmi Dmi G7 C G A7

the land as it's sup - posed to be. Tell me, Do you

D Bmi G D D Bmi

love this blue - green plan-et that we call our Moth - er Earth? Do you care for her like I do, do you know just what she's worth? Well, the pic - ture that I'm paint - ing has been made for you to see that the

G A7 D Bmi G F#

D Bmi G A7 D G D Bmi

min - ers are re - claim - ing, and they're do - ing it for me. The min - ers are re - claim - ing, and they're

G E7 A7 D

do - ing it for me.