

The Mountain of Stone

C Emi F G7 C

From the moun - tain of stone, come so man - y things we've come to call our own. From the

C Emi F G7 C F F6

quar - ry of sand, come so man - y things we find u - pon the land. There are brid - ges and chur - ches, sky -

F7 F6 C F F6 D7

scra - pers and high - ways, too. Air - ports and run - ways and hos - pi - tals and our schools. From the moun - tain of stone, came the rock that would bring beau - ty to my home. From the quar - ry of sand, came the gra - vel that they used to lay the land. There was

G7 C Emi F G7

C C Emi F G7 C

F F6 F7 F6 C F F6

stuc - co and bricks and mor - tar and wall - board, too. Drive - ways and side - walks,

D7 G7 C Emi

gut - ters and streets a - new. From the moun - tain of stone, come so man - y things we've come to call our own. From the quar - ry of sand, come so man - y things we find u - pon the land. Come so man - y things we find u - pon the land.

F G7 C C Emi F

F G7 C

