The Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, together with CAFOD, have voiced their support for the Just Peace Coalition's Time to Act campaign which was launched on Monday 22 June 2026.

The Time to Act campaign has been organised by the Just Peace Coalition of churches and charities, including All We Can; Amos Trust; CAFOD; Christian Aid; Christians for Palestine; Commitment for Life; EAPPI UK and Ireland; Embrace the Middle East; Iona Community; Justice and Peace Scotland; Methodist Church; Pax Christi England & Wales; Quakers in Britain; Sabeel-Kairos UK; SCIAF; Undeb Yr Annibynwyr Cymraeg/ the Union of Welsh Independents; United Reformed Church; and Yr Eglwys yng Nghymru/Church in Wales.

The campaign promotes a shared commitment for justice, peace and human dignity, calling for "a just peace for all who call the Holy Land home." It encourages people to collectively raise their voices, for example by writing to their local Member of Parliament, to speak out against injustice and advocate for change.

In a message of endorsement, Bishop Jim Curry said: "The Holy Land is sacred to Jews, Christians and Muslims alike. It needs be a place where the dignity of every person is recognised and protected. Lasting peace can only be built on a foundation of equal human and civil rights; justice and mutual respect for all. Israelis, Palestinians and people of every religious belief and understanding...I warmly support the 'Time to Act' campaign and the call for a future in which every person can live peacefully, free of violence and intimidation, knowing that their God-given dignity is upheld. It is vital that our Government listens to those calling on the international community to help bring about a just peace and ensure that international law is respected and upheld." Bishop Stephen Wright (Chair of Trustees of CAFOD), echoed this call, saying: "In his recent encyclical Magnifica humanitas, Pope Leo reminds us that 'all of us, at every level, can contribute to building the foundation of peace, which is justice. We do not merely seek any kind of peace – such as an absence of conflict at any cost – but instead, the true peace born of justice'. Time to Act' offers an opportunity for all of us to play our part in responding to the call to work urgently for a just peace in the Holy Land."

ACT FOR PEACE

From Pius, our church cat, reading this week:
The desire for truth and freedom, as well as the very pursuit of happiness, continues to inspire people of all generations to ask fundamental questions regarding the meaning of life, our ultimate purpose, and indeed about God, and it is proper for magnanimous hearts to endeavour to answer these questions with sincerity

(Pope Leo XVI on receiving the 2026 Liberty Medal: 'God bless America')
