Today we celebrate the 100th WORLD MISSION DAY

For the centenary of World Mission Sunday, Pope Leo XIV's send us a letter with the theme "One in Christ, united in mission." The Pope calls the Church to renew its missionary zeal through communion with Christ, reconciled communities, and generous cooperation. His central point is that unity is both the fruit of life in Christ and a source of fruitful mission. Division and mistrust weaken Christian witness, while a reconciled, fraternal community helps the world encounter the Gospel. Unity does not mean uniformity: different charisms, cultures, and traditions can work together in the same mission.

The Pope stresses that every baptized person shares in mission, according to their vocation—through witness, cooperation, and proclaiming Christ. He also encourages prayer and practical support for missionaries, especially through the Pontifical Mission Societies and the World Mission Sunday collection, which serves the Church's missionary needs and the poorest.

Pope Leo XIV prayer intention for October is for mental health ministry.
Let us pray that mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

From Pius, our church cat, reading this week:

Being one in Christ lies at the heart of mission… A communion that flows from the Trinity, and continues to be sustained by the Trinity. A communion at the service of fraternity among all human beings and harmony with all creation.' – (Pope Leo XIV, World Mission Day 2026 Message)
